

You're Invited:

The Vermont Boat and Marine Association, the Lake Champlain Basin Program and Lake Champlain Sea Grant invite you to attend a free workshop on Friday, March 29, 2019 regarding marina and recreational boating issues. Please RSVP at the number below.

Marine Workshop Agenda

Marriott Hotel

25 Cherry Street, Burlington, VT

9:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

- 9:00 Welcome, Mike O'Brien, President, VBMA
- 9:05 Announcements, marina participants
- 9:20 International Joint Commission, Lake Champlain – Richelieu River Flood Study
- Kris Stepenuck, LCRR US Public Advisory Group co-chair
- 9:40 Pumpout Nav App Updates and Clean Vessel Act Funding
- Mike Wichrowski, Vermont Fish and Wildlife Department
- 10:00 Residential and Commercial Wastewater System Rule Changes and Vermont Green Business Program Updates
- Ernie Christianson, VTDEC, Drinking and Groundwater Protection Division
- 10:20 Brief Updates
- MSD Knowledge/Behaviors Survey – Kris Stepenuck, Lake Champlain Sea Grant
 - Coast Guard Updates – Ed Green, US Coast Guard
 - Fuel spill catcher prototype status – Mark Malchoff, Lake Champlain Sea Grant
 - Fuel and oil spills: upcoming training opportunity and agency perspectives – Jason Scott, USCG and UVM
 - Act S69 Wake Board Regulations, Eric Splatt from Woodard Marine
- 11:00 Break
- 11:15 Burlington CSO Issues/Capacity – Megan Moir (invited) or Q&A if speaker not available
- 11:30 Adjourn

Please pre-register so that we may set up seating and morning refreshments. Please contact the Lake Champlain Basin Program at (802) 372-0211 or (800) 468-5227 or reply to Slarkin@lcbp.org

