

Master Jaime Schulte

Rank and Certification

4th Dan Kukkiwon (2008)
International Referee 3rd Class (2010)

Training Experience:

Master Schulte started Taekwondo at the University of Vermont in September 1994, under Master Joseph Shields. He became a student of Master Ernest Hart in 1996. Master Schulte is also associated with Master Jim Montgomery (IR 1st Class) who is his referee instructor/mentor.

Teaching Experience:

2007-Present	Master Instructor	UVM Taekwondo
2004-2007	Senior Instructor	UVM Taekwondo
1997-2004	Assistant Instructor	UVM Taekwondo

Leadership Roles:

2010-Present	Board of Directors	Eastern Collegiate Taekwondo Conference
2009-Present	Referee Chairman	Eastern Collegiate Taekwondo Conference
2002-2004	Referee Chairman	Vermont Taekwondo Association, USTU

Recent Referee Experience:

2011 – WTF - US Open
2011 – USA – World Championships Team Trials
2010 – USA - Pan-American Games Team Trials
2010 – USA - Awarded “Outstanding Referee” for Junior Nationals
2010 – USA - Senior and Junior Nationals
2010 – USA - Poomsae National Team Trials
2010 – USA - Certified as a USA Taekwondo Level 1 Judge for Poomsae
2010 – USA - Collegiate National Championships & Team Trials
2010 – WTF - Certified as a WTF International Referee 3rd Class
2010 – WTF - 58th Kyorugi International Referee Seminar
2010 – ECTC Tournaments

Interests:

Master Schulte has particular interests in Taekwondo instruction and refereeing. Collegiate Taekwondo is a major focus through involvement with the University of Vermont, the Eastern Collegiate Taekwondo Conference, and the National Collegiate Taekwondo Association. He enjoys teaching students and developing new referees.