

CRISIS PREVENTION INSTITUTE - Nonviolent Crisis Intervention® Training
Tuesday, December 1 through Friday, December 4, 2015
Held at Marlboro College in downtown Brattleboro, VT
28 Vernon Street – Brattleboro, VT 05301

The Four-Day Instructor Certification & Renewal Program will allow you to have a CPI instructor on your staff that will provide you the flexibility to train school personnel whenever it is most convenient for your in-service schedule. Training includes the 2015 NCI Enhancements

For the first two days of the CPI instructor certification training, participants will learn:

- How to identify behaviors that can lead to a crisis;
- Nonverbal techniques for controlling disruptive behavior;
- Successful verbal resolution of a crisis situation;
- Why verbal aggression becomes physical;
- Dealing with staff fear and anxiety;
- Personal Safety Techniques;
- When and how to restrain safely;
- How to safely and effectively control and transport an individual;
- How to develop team intervention strategies;
- Ways to maintain rapport with the acting-out individual;
- Key steps for debriefing after a crisis;

On days three and four of the program, participants learn how to master the intervention techniques they have learned so they are able to teach them to staff at their schools.

Participants who successfully complete the Four-Day Instructor Certification Program, as well as Instructors who attend as a four-day renewal or recertification, leave equipped with both the skills and the resources to train immediately.

Who should attend?

Individuals selected should be carefully considered around the following characteristics:

- Strong professional attitude of empathy and compassion
- Knowledge and understanding of best practices in managing challenging behaviors
- Physical and verbal competency
- Strong presentation skills

If you have any questions about this program or if you would like to reserve your space, please call me toll-free at 877.877.5389 x7088. I encourage you to take advantage of 2015 prices for the very last time!

Sincerely,

Justin Barkhurst