Please join us on April 24 to hear Gilbert King deliver a lecture on institutional racism in America’s judicial system and society.

Gilbert King is the author of Beneath a Ruthless Sun, published by Riverhead Books in 2018. He is also the author of the New York Times bestseller, Devil in the Grove, which was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for Nonfiction in 2013. The book was also the runner-up in nonfiction for the Dayton Literary Peace Prize, a finalist for both the Chautauqua Prize and the Edgar Award, and the gold medal winner in nonfiction for the Florida Book Awards. King has written about the race and criminal justice for the New York Times and the Washington Post, The Atlantic, and Smithsonian. He’s also a featured contributor to The Marshall Project. King’s previous book, The Execution of Willie Francis was published in 2008. He lives in Brooklyn, NY.

For more information, please go to www.GilbertKing.com

Date
April 24, 2019

Time
6:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Location
Memorial Lounge, Waterman