

The Vermont State Data Center

A liaison between the U.S. Census Bureau and Vermont's Data Communities

The VT State Data Center is Part of a National Network of State Data Centers

- Providing access to Federal data programs & products
- Advocating for data utilization through education & outreach
- Assisting with Federal data collection efforts

The Vermont State Data Center is:

- Housed at the Center for Rural Studies at UVM
  - www.uvm.edu/crs
- Home to an historical database of Vermont Census population data- Vermont Indicators Online
- Engaged in building the next generation of tools for data access and utilization- Vermont Insights

The Vermont State Data Center serves:

- VT data users including researchers, non-profits, businesses and state & local governments by;
  - Responding to data requests
  - Conducting data access and utilization trainings
  - Supporting Census Bureau data collection efforts to ensure VT data accuracy
  - Advocating for data-driven decision-making
  - Providing access to local and National data resources including Vermont Insights and American Factfinder.

The Vermont State Data Center works with a range of subject-matter including:

- Socio-Demographic data
  - Population, ancestry, migration, income, housing, education, occupation, and much more
- Business & Economic data
  - Employment, wages & revenues, job creation, industry data, and much more
- Government data
  - Employment, expenditures, etc.

Contact us any time for assistance

Michael Moser

State Data Center Coordinator

mmoser@uvm.edu

656-0864

