

SOUL Tree Stewards

Vermont SOUL Tree Steward Training

Scholarship Application Form

The Vermont Urban and Community Forestry Program is offering up to 5 complete scholarships for the course. Recipients will be responsible for their own travel expenses. The scholarship committee reserves the right, at its discretion, to award partial scholarships. In selecting scholar recipients, we are seeking individuals who:

- Intend to use the skills, information and knowledge they gain from the SOUL Tree Steward program to engage in furthering their community's management of its public tree resource.
- Are willing to assist the Urban and Community Forestry program by writing a summary of their program experience to potentially be used in future program promotion, by June 30, 2010.

Requests will be reviewed and awarded on a first come first served basis as funds are available through January 29, 2010. Please attached this form to the registration form and mail to Vermont Urban and Community Forestry Program, University of Vermont Extension, 397 Railroad Street, Suite 3, St. Johnsbury, Vermont 05819-1740

You will be notified on February 4th about the status of your application.

1. Tell us briefly about yourself (describe community, school, and/or organizational experiences you have had; include, for example, memberships, offices held in community groups, community learning experiences, volunteer activities).

2. What do you hope to learn from this program?

3. How do you plan to use the information you gain through the SOUL program?

4. Is there any other additional information you would like us to consider when reviewing your application?

5. I am willing to write a brief description of my program experience by June 30, 2010.
