4-H LEAD Day Camp

LEAD stands for Leaders Emerging and Developing and is a series of different programs to learn and practice leadership skills throughout the year. 4-H LEAD Day Camp will take place on Saturday, July 29, 2017 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and is designed to help campers learn and practice key skills to guide their development as leaders.

This one-day camp, held at the Aloha Foundation Middlebrook Campus in Fairlee, Vt. will include a combination of teambuilding activities and an adventure activity. Activities and debriefing conversations will focus particularly on teamwork, leadership and community. Staff will ensure a fun, safe, an encouraging atmosphere in which campers can explore their strengths and challenge themselves to take on new adventures. The beautiful outdoor camp will provide a rich natural environment for all activities.

Campers will have a morning activity block, picnic lunch, and an afternoon activity block. Activity blocks will include some combination of the following components:

- Teambuilding/Low Ropes
- High Ropes Course
- Climb Tower

Concepts and activities introduced during this day camp will help prepare campers to fully engage in the 4-H LEAD Weekend Camp (for those that want to do both). This program is open to all youth ages 11-18 (as of January 1, 2017).
