LEAD stands for Leaders Emerging and Developing and is a series of different programs to learn and practice leadership skills throughout the year. 4-H LEAD Weekend Camp will take place on September 9-10, 2017 at the Aloha Camp in Fairlee, Vt. for all youth ages 11-18 (as of January 1, 2017).

At this weekend camp, participants will learn key principles that inspire and empower them to assume leadership roles in their lives and to use these leadership skills to help others in their community. Participants will learn to utilize their own strengths; work effectively as a team member; focus on the issues that matter to them; and use their time, treasure, and talents to serve others.

Campers will arrive at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday and stay until pick-up at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday. Over these two days campers will engage in leadership workshops, teambuilding activities, and InspiringKids leadership project sessions. There will also be many opportunities for campers to enjoy the beautiful campus, have fun outdoors, and relax with other campers.

4-H LEAD Weekend Camp will feature three main components:

* Leadership Workshops—Staff will challenge campers to identify and utilize their own unique talents and those of their team members to lead and problem-solve in many different situations.

* Teambuilding Activities—Staff will use props, Ropes course elements, and creative imagination to structure experiences that illustrate the importance of trust, communication, decision-making, problem-solving, and fun in every day life. Discussions led by staff during this time will help campers to see the many roles that a leader may take on and offer opportunities to recognize different leadership styles.

* InspiringKids Leadership Project Sessions—Staff will teach campers how they can use their time, treasure, and talent to build a strong community and help those in need around them. Time may be spent during these sessions on brainstorming, goal setting and/or planning for leadership or community service in the upcoming year.
