MULTI-COUNTY HORSE JUDGING CLINIC

April 22, 2017
11:00 a.m.

Wishful Thinking Farm
3292 South Street
New Haven, VT 05472

Directions from Burlington:
Route 7 south, left on Route 17 East, right on South Street, go 3 miles, Wishful Thinking Farm will be on the right.

Directions from Middlebury:
Route 7 north, right on River Road, bear left at intersection of River Road and South Street, go 1 mile, Wishful Thinking Farm will be on the left.

This program is open to all 4-H members in Addison, Rutland and Bennington counties. Register by Monday, April 17, 2017.

Topics and evaluation questions covered in this clinic:
- Do you know the conformation of a horse?
- What do these terms mean?: Balance, Muscling, Structure, Quality, Travel
- How do I apply this information when judging?

For more information and to register, please contact your county 4-H Educator:
Martha Seifert, 4-H Educator (Addison County)
802-388-4969 ext. 335 or 1-800-956-1125
martha.seifert@uvm.edu

Kimberly Griffin, 4-H Educator (Rutland and Bennington Counties)
802-773-3349 ext. 276 or 1-800-281-6977
kimberly.griffin@uvm.edu

If you require a disability-related accommodation to participate in this program, please contact Martha Seifert at 802-388-4969 ext. 335 or 1-800 956-1125 by April 1, 2017 so we may assist you.