

Have You Seen This House?

The Manor was originally owned and built by Dr. W. S. Webb. Burlington businessmen bought the property and turned into a hotel, with tennis courts, boats, and swimming available. It then became a country club, which the city bought in 1971. Twenty-five days later the fire dept. burned the building. Now a pavilion occupies the remains of the building.