

The Living/Learning Center's Casa Italiana presents....

LAMERICA

A couple of Italian con men travel to economically ravaged Albania after the collapse of Communism there, hoping to cash in by setting up a bogus corporation with a senile old man as its CEO. But the plot fails when the elderly chairman wanders away from the orphanage where he'd been stashed, leading one of the cons on an eye-opening quest through the slums of Albania.

Film runs from 7:30 p.m. on February 21
Room 216 Commons, L/L Center

Free and open to the UVM community

Nuovo Cinema Italiano

Info: Prof. Paolo Pucci, Paolo.Pucci@uvm.edu
<http://www.uvm.edu/lcenter/speakers/>