Vermont Master Composters partner with the Lamoille Regional Solid Waste Management Division to present workshops on backyard composting. Presentations include a brief discussion on the science of composting, the options for composting, the recipes for composting, uses for compost, and troubleshooting.

Master Composter Intern, Shannon Choquette, presents the How-To's of Backyard Composting at the Varnum Memorial Library. 10 attendees

Master Composter, Aaron Shepard discusses How to Backyard Compost with Bears at the Johnson Public Library. 16 attendees
Master Composter Maxfield English, explains the Science of Backyard Composting at the Lanpher Memorial Library while Master Composter Intern, Shannon Choquette listens. 16 attendees

Photos submitted by Elly Ventura, Vermont Master Composter