CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION

The Neurology for the Non-Neurologist conference is designed to offer the most up-to-date information for primary care providers as they are often the first health care professionals to encounter a neurological problem. The conference is designed to teach the non-neurologist how to diagnose common neurological disorders, order appropriate diagnostic studies and provide a guide for therapy and appropriate patient care.

Primary care physicians, nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants and other medical professionals with an interest in neurology are encouraged to attend.

OBJECTIVES

1. Recognize key neurological consequences and identify appropriate treatment of traumatic brain injury and concussion.
2. Identify diagnosis and treatment strategies for peripheral neuropathy.
3. Determine diagnostic criteria for neuro-infectious disorders in the primary care setting.
4. Describe key factors in the evaluation and treatment of nonepileptic seizures.
5. Identify migraine types using the international classification of headache and determine appropriate treatments.
6. Discuss diagnostic criteria and distinguish between primary and secondary multiple sclerosis.
7. Evaluate current recommendations in adult ADHD.
8. Evaluate indications for sleep studies and potential treatments.
9. Explain components of a basic neurological exam.
