COURSE DESCRIPTION

The conference is intended for dermatologists, although primary care physicians with a special interest in dermatology are welcome to attend. The course is designed to provide high-level continuing education for dermatologists, keeping them abreast of new and exciting findings in basic science, clinical dermatology and dermatologic therapy. We are fortunate this year to have an outstanding group of lecturers speaking on a wide range of clinical applications.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

1. Improve treatment of severe psoriasis and atopic dermatitis with new and old systemic agents.
2. Recognize and effectively evaluate complex disorders of pigmentation.
3. Properly manage cutaneous diseases of returning travelers.
4. Evaluate and manage patients with various forms of cutaneous and systemic lupus including the more unusual subtypes.
5. Effectively diagnose and manage challenging melanocytic nevi including Spitz Nevi and atypical Spitz Nevi.

REGISTRATION

TUITION: Physicians $575 (on or before November 28); Nurse Practitioners/Physician Assistants $350 (on or before November 28); Physicians-in-training $300. Fee includes course materials, continental breakfasts, breaks and reception.

REFUNDS: Refunds, minus an administrative fee of $75, will be made only if notice of cancellation is received in writing by December 23, 2014. Refunds are not possible after that date.

LEISURE TIME

The newly renovated Topnotch offers two restaurants, a full service spa, tennis academy and a new state-of-the-art fitness center equipped with strength training equipment as well as many recreational activities.

Stowe exudes breathtaking beauty in the winter. World class skiing is available, at a discounted rate, by completing the appropriate section on the registration form. For those who seek alternatives to skiing, the Village of Stowe offers many small, unique boutiques. Nordic skiing, snowmobile rentals, and skating are also available in the area. Call the Stowe Area Association at (802) 253-7321 for more information.
