Annual Update on Women’s Health Conference
September 7-9, 2016
DoubleTree Hotel
South Burlington, Vermont

This conference includes 1 credit in Prescribing Controlled Substances.

Course Description
The depth and complexity of women-orienting women's healthcare makes it increasingly difficult for healthcare professionals to remain current. Guidelines and recommendations for care are rapidly changing, and the current conference is to present current and important healthcare issues from various specialties and clinical areas that uniquely impact women.

This conference is designed to bring together experts from a variety of disciplines to discuss advances in women's healthcare in a one-conference meeting. Workshops have been added to facilitate greater participation and interaction among attendees. This conference is intended to bring together midwives, nurses, students and other allied healthcare professionals who provide care for women.

Course Objectives
At the conclusion of this conference, participants should be able to:

* Review up-to-date management of abnormal uterine bleeding, diabetes in pregnancy, hyperlipidemia, opioid addiction treatment in pregnancy, pelvic organ prolapse, fibromyalgia, Guideline and recommendations for various healthcare issues ranging from mental health to sexual violence.

* Discuss women-specific health issues, including cancer, chronic care management, nutrition, sleep disorders, weight gain, obesity, pre-diabetes, diabetes, and menopause.

* Participate in workshops on health benefits of prenatal and postnatal yoga, safe and osteopathic manipulative, holistic, and nutrition for women.

Workshops
Participants will be able to choose two workshops. Participants will be able to choose their top choices. There is limited enrollment in each workshop - two sessions of 2.5 hours each. The last day for registration is August 15, 2016.
