The 25th Annual Eastern Winter Dermatology Conference
January 17-20, 2014
Stowe, Vermont

New Location!

The newly remodeled Topnotch offers two restaurants, a full service spa and boutique, and a fitness center equipped with strength training equipment as well as many recreational activities to fill your downtime. Stowe exudes breathtaking beauty in the winter. World-class skiing is available, at a discounted rate, by completing the appropriate section on the registration form. For those who seek alternatives to skiing, the Village of Stowe offers many small, unique boutiques. Nordic skiing, snowmobile rentals, and skating are also available in the area. Call the Stowe Area Association at (802) 253-7321 for information.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES
1. Discuss how to safely implement treatment for newborns with cutaneous vascular anomalies.
2. Identify and manage reactions to new cancer treatments.
3. Describe how to align and adjust practice in order to remain an effective and successful dermatologist.
4. Describe how to successfully maintain your certification.
5. Identify facial changes that can be restored to baseline with laser therapy.

REGISTRATION
TUITION: Physicians $575 (on or before November 29th); Nurse Practitioners/Physician Assistants $500 (on or before November 29th); Physicians-in-training $130. Fee includes course materials, continental breakfasts, breaks and reception.

REFUNDS: Refunds, minus an administrative fee of 50%, will be made only if notice of cancellation is received in writing by January 3, 2014. Refunds are not possible after that date.

COURSE DESCRIPTION
The program is designed to enhance education for dermatologists, keeping them abreast of new and exciting findings in basic science, clinical dermatology and the management of skin disease. The symposium features an outstanding group of lecturers speaking on a wide range of clinical applications. Please join us for the 25th anniversary conference. To celebrate, all registrants will be entered into a raffle to win a tuition waiver for the 2015 course. We hope to see you at what promises to be another great educational experience!
