DNA fragmentation (TUNEL assay). – Murine bone marrow-derived dendritic cells were grown in the presence (A) or absence (B) of serum. Nicked DNA was labeled by incubating cells with biotin-dUTP (Roche Diagnostics) followed with streptavidin-FITC and analyzed by flow cytometry.