

University Operating Procedure

Minors; Reporting Abuse or Neglect of and Crimes

Overview

The University strives to maintain a supportive and safe environment for those who work, study or participate in programs and activities at the University. As part of that commitment, the University seeks to create a secure environment for individuals under the age of majority (“minor(s)” or “child(ren)”). It is therefore essential that all persons who have responsibilities that involve interaction with children on campus, on property owned or leased by the University off-campus, in programs offered by third persons with University sponsorship or affiliation, or while engaged in a University-related activity off-campus, abide by the requirements of this Procedure.

Vermont law requires that the professionals listed below report to the Vermont Department for Children and Families (DCF) any incident arising as to which there is reasonable cause to believe a minor has been abused (sexually or otherwise) or neglected. In addition, to protect optimally the safety of minors who are participating in University programs and activities, under this Procedure the University requires any employee who has reasonable cause to believe that a minor participating in such program or activity has been abused or neglected to report the concern promptly as indicated in Section II. A. below.

If you know or suspect that a minor is a victim of abuse or neglect, you must act. In deciding whether or not to report an incident or situation of suspected abuse or neglect, you need not have proof that abuse or neglect has occurred. Any uncertainty in deciding whether to report suspected abuse or neglect should be resolved in favor of making a good faith report.

Vermont law provides that any concerned person who has reasonable cause to believe that a minor has been abused or neglected may report those concerns to DCF. Any person, other than a person suspected of child abuse, who makes a good faith report to DCF is immune from civil and criminal liability related to making the report. Furthermore, the University is prohibited under law from retaliating or taking adverse employment action against an individual who makes a good faith report of suspected abuse or neglect of a minor.

Procedures

I. REPORTING REQUIRED BY LAW

A. Abuse or Neglect of a Minor

Under Vermont law (33 VSA § 4913), the professionals who have mandatory reporting obligations with respect to the possible abuse or neglect of a minor include:

- Health care providers, such as physicians, resident physicians, interns, surgeons, osteopaths, chiropractors, physician’s assistants, hospital administrators, nurses, emergency medical personnel, medical examiners, dentists, psychologists, and pharmacists
- School district and independent school employees, such as school superintendents, teachers and student teachers, school librarians, school principals, and school guidance counselors
- Child care workers
- Mental health professionals
- Social workers
- Employees, contractors, and grantees of the agency of human services who have contact with clients
- Probation officers and police officers
- Camp owners, camp administrators or counselors of both residential and non-residential camps
- Members of the clergy

The report must be made within 24 hours, and can be done by calling the DCF Child Abuse Hotline at 1-800-649-5285.

B. Crimes against Minors on University Property

Certain University officials (“Campus Security Authorities”) are required by a federal law known as the Clery Act to report to University Police Services any suspected sexual assault or other crime that occurs on University Property. Additionally, such University officials are required by federal law to report to the Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity (AAEO) any and all allegations of discrimination, harassment, and sexual misconduct involving a member of the University community. In this reporting capacity, University officials are referred to as “Responsible Employees”. These reporting obligations include, but are not limited to, crimes as to which the victim is a minor.

Campus Security Authorities and Responsible Employees include:

- Members of the University of Vermont Department of Police Services and contract security personnel;
- A supervisor, manager or higher level employee;
- A chair, director or dean of an academic unit;
- Full and part-time faculty members; and

- Any University official who has significant responsibility for student and campus activities, including, but not limited to, student housing, student discipline and campus judicial proceedings, coaches and coaching staff, advisors to recognized student organizations, and personnel with oversight responsibilities for student employees..

Campus Security Authorities and Responsible Employees must make a report to Police Services if and when they receive information that a crime in which the victim is a minor may have occurred on University Property. It does not matter whether the individuals involved in the possible crime as perpetrators or victims are members of the University community -- the incident must be reported even if no member of the University community was involved. Simultaneously, to the extent the incident at issue involves discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct, and one of the parties is a member of the University community, the CSA / Responsible Employee must also contact AAEO.

Contact information is as follows:

University Police Services: EMERGENCY: 911. Non-emergency: (802) 656-3473.

Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity: (802) 656-3368

II. ADDITIONAL REPORTING REQUIRED BY THE UNIVERSITY

A. Abuse or Neglect of a Minor

The University requires any employee who has reasonable cause to believe that a minor participating in such program or activity has been abused or neglected to advise the employee's supervisor promptly (assuming that there is no reason to believe that the supervisor is involved in the possible abuse or neglect, in which case the employee makes the report to the supervisor's supervisor) or to notify DCF. If a supervisor is so notified, the supervisor must promptly make a report to DCF and to Police Services.

Contact information is as follows:

University Police Services: EMERGENCY: 911; Non-emergency: (802) 656-3473

DCF Child Abuse Hotline: 1-800-649-5285

B. Crimes against Minors on University Property

In addition to the reporting required of Campus Security Authorities described in Section I.B above, the University requires any UVM employee who has reasonable cause to believe that a minor on University property has been, or is, the victim of a crime either to advise the employee's supervisor (assuming that there is no reason to believe that the supervisor is involved in the possible crime, in which case the employee makes the report to the supervisor's supervisor) or Police Services. If the supervisor is so notified, the supervisor must make a report to Police Services. It does not matter whether individuals believed to be involved in the crime as perpetrators or victims are members of the University community -- reporting must occur even if no member of the University community appears to be involved.
