

Code of Conduct and Ethical Standards

Code Statement

The University of Vermont is committed to continually strengthening its ethical culture. From the University's motto of "Studiis et Rebus Honestis" (Integrity in Theoretical and Practical Pursuits) to our values stated in "Our Common Ground" (<http://www.uvm.edu/~president/?Page=miscellaneous/commonground.html>), we are all expected to perform our jobs and to conduct business in an ethical and compliant manner. All University personnel have a shared responsibility to the University, to those we serve, to our community and to each other.

Reason for the Code

This Code of Conduct and Ethical Standards ("Code") is a tool to help you comply with legal and regulatory requirements and with University policies and procedures. The Code is designed to help you make ethical choices when and if you are faced with a difficult decision or situation.

Applicability of the Code

This Code applies to all University of Vermont personnel. For the purpose of this Code, personnel includes, but is not limited to, faculty, staff, volunteers, student employees, and individuals hired or contracted to perform a function that is generally associated with an employment relationship (i.e., temporary employee, student employees).

Code Elaboration

The Office of Compliance Services is responsible for the oversight of the University's compliance program; however, we are all individually responsible to be aware of and comply with the legal and regulatory requirements and with University policies and procedures relevant to our jobs. In addition, certain professions also have additional ethical standards or professional codes of conduct which members of those professions are also expected to comply with. Examples include, but are not limited to, the American Medical Association's Code of Medical Ethics and the American Bar Association's Model Rules of Professional Conduct.

Depending on the alleged violation, there may be mandatory reporting requirements (see Minors; Protection on Campus and Campus Security Authorities (CSA) – Designation of and Reporting By). If not required by a regulation, you may feel a moral obligation to report. Additionally, under this Code, reporting all types of wrongdoing is encouraged. For the purpose of this policy, “wrongdoing” is defined as:

- Real or suspected violations of legal and regulatory requirements (laws, acts, statutes, regulations), policies and procedures and/or professional standards.
- Fraudulent or dishonest conduct resulting in violation of law or University policy.

Not all compliance reports have to be reports of wrongdoing. You may also use any of the compliance reporting mechanisms if you need guidance or clarification on a policy or procedure, if you have questions related to a University process designed to comply with a legal or regulatory requirement or if you are looking for assistance or have questions when faced with an ethical decision or dilemma.

Compliance Reporting System:

The University has established a robust compliance reporting system made up of several reporting mechanisms. For more information on available reporting mechanisms, review the Whistleblower Policy: Reporting, Protections, & Non-Retaliation policy located at http://www.uvm.edu/policies/general_html/whistleblower.pdf. This policy outlines the different mechanisms including the Compliance and Ethics Reporting and HelpLine (“HelpLine”). Policies that contain reporting requirements include the preferred methods of reporting that should be followed. If a policy is silent to reporting requirements, if anonymity is requested and not provided by other reporting channels, reports may be made through the HelpLine.

For reports that are made directly to a manager or supervisor, the manager/supervisor is required to notify the Director of Compliance or the Office of General Counsel when the manager/supervisor suspects the report may result in either a violation to legal or regulatory requirements or fraudulent activity. Managers/Supervisors are encouraged to seek the advice of Compliance Services as soon as possible when they receive reports of alleged noncompliance to a legal or regulatory requirement.

Reports made through the HelpLine are received and screened through a third-party vendor. While some other mechanisms can accept anonymous reports, the best reporting method for maintaining the anonymity of anonymous reports is the HelpLine. Regardless of the reporting mechanism used, all reports are kept as confidential as possible. However, anonymity can never be guaranteed. For more information on anonymous reporting, refer to the HelpLine FAQ’s (http://www.uvm.edu/compliance/help_line_faq).

Non-Retaliation:

The University prohibits retaliation or retribution for a good faith report, for supporting a person who files a good faith report, or for participating in an investigation of a report. Individuals making bad faith reports are not afforded these protections. The University has adopted, “Whistleblower Policy: Reporting, Protections & Non-Retaliation” policy. Prohibited retaliation may result in discipline up to and including discharge from employment independent of the outcome of the reported wrongdoing

Disciplinary Action:

If wrongdoing has been substantiated, those individuals found to have committed the wrongdoing will be subject to disciplinary action at a level appropriate for the violation. Levels of disciplinary action range from a verbal warning up to dismissal. Disciplinary action could also include termination of University institutional recognition or external affiliate relationships with the University and, depending on the University's regulatory requirements, and could even include civil claims and criminal charges. Investigation and determination of discipline for represented employees will occur in accordance with provisions of the applicable collective bargaining agreement.

Privacy and Security of Confidential Information: At UVM, we recognize the importance of protecting the privacy and security of confidential information. Some of this information is legally protected. Some of it is sensitive and, for a variety of reasons, needs to be kept confidential. Whether it is legally required or just the right thing to do, the University takes this responsibility very seriously and demonstrates its commitment through its Information Security and Privacy Programs. All persons covered by this Code have a responsibility to maintain the privacy and security of confidential or sensitive information. Protection of this information can greatly reduce the risk of the misuse of information or a breach.

If you engage in external activities that significantly interfere with your ability to perform your UVM duties or are reasonably expected to interfere with your ability to perform your UVM duties, you may have a conflict of commitment. In both cases, the agreement, arrangement or activity could be prohibited.

Stealing, committing fraud, bribing, and providing kickbacks are all examples of inappropriate use of University resources and are all violations of the law, University policy and this Code. We must all do our part to protect University resources.

Accuracy in Recordkeeping: The University has an obligation to ensure the trust of the public and other stakeholders through its financial and regulatory reporting. This includes ensuring the accuracy and timeliness of our records and reports. Submitting false information on a timesheet or expense report is stealing. Knowingly including false financial information in a report to the government is fraud. It is imperative for all of us to be honest and truthful in all records we maintain as part of our work duties.

Relationships with University Vendors and Other Third Parties in Business Transactions

Personnel are expected to deal fairly with vendors and other third parties UVM conducts business with. No unfair advantage shall be taken of prospective or current vendors through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material fact or any other unfair practice. Additionally, all procurement policies and guidance must be followed to provide for a fair, impartial and inclusive selection process.

Research: At the University, the scope of research is broad and diverse. While research activities are an integral part of the University, it is also an area that is heavily regulated and, as such, poses significant compliance risks. Ethics are fundamental to all academic research. Without ethics and trust, a complex, modern research institution cannot function. Researchers must be aware of the ethical standards governing their discipline and to avoid even the appearance of impropriety.
