University Seal

History of the Official Seal of the University of Vermont

The University first adopted an official seal in 1807. The seal depicts the sun rising over the Green Mountains with the original "college edifice" (now the remodeled Old Mill) in the upper foreground, and a diagram of the Pythagorean Theorem, a quadrant, and a globe in the lower foreground. The outer ring of the oval includes the motto "Universitas V. Montis. A.D. 1791." "Collegiumque Agriculturae" in an inner ring notes the establishment of the College of Agriculture in 1865. From 1891 until 1975, the original seal was replaced with a round seal developed to include the College of Agriculture. In 1975, the University Board of Trustees approved a return to the original oval seal, modified to include the College of Agriculture representation within the inner ring of the oval.

Policy Statement

The embossed seal is, in addition to a symbol of the identity of the University, a corporate mark of identification demonstrating the authenticity of academic records, contracts and other documents executed in the name of the University. It is important as a fiduciary matter and to the integrity of the University that the seal ("Seal") be used only for permissible purposes by authorized University officials. This policy therefore sets forth rules regarding use of the Seal and describes how authorization is conferred.

The University Seal shall be used for the purposes of authenticating documents for both corporate and academic purposes by University officials whom the Secretary designates to do so.
