Michael Reisch, Ph.D.

Daniel Thursz Distinguished Professor of Social Justice,
School of Social Work, University of Maryland, Baltimore

CAN AMERICAN DEMOCRACY SURVIVE IN A DIVERSE BUT UNEQUAL SOCIETY?

Michael Reisch, a former Woodrow Wilson Fellow and Fulbright Scholar, is a prolific author who has played a leadership role in advocacy, professional, and social justice organizations that focus on issues of poverty and inequality and the needs of low-income children and families, welfare recipients, immigrants and refugees, unemployed workers, and homeless persons.

Wednesday, March 25, 2015
4:00 pm – 5:15 pm
Memorial Lounge, Waterman Building
Reception immediately following the lecture in Waterman Manor

Hosted by the Department of Social Work
For more information call Susan Comerford, Ph.D., 802-656-2487

To request accommodations such as seating, interpreting, etc. for this event please contact Conference and Event Services at conferences@uvm.edu or 802-656-5665 in advance of the event.