Richard Wolff

Professor of Economics Emeritus, University of Massachusetts Amherst
Visiting Professor, New School University

DEEPENING ECONOMIC PROBLEMS AND NEW SOLUTIONS

Wolff’s recent work has concentrated on analyzing the real causes of the 2008-9 global financial crisis and offering alternatives to conventional economic policy. In his book, Democracy at Work: A Cure for Capitalism, Wolff explains how increasing capitalist financial instability is tied to unbalanced economic growth and distribution. He concludes by presenting innovative ideas aimed at achieving a more equitable, financially stable economy and an authentic democracy.

Tuesday, March 17, 2015
4:00 pm – 5:30 pm
Livak Ballroom, Dudley H. Davis Center

Reception immediately following the lecture in Jost Room

Hosted by the Department of Economics

For more information contact: Professor Shirley Gedeon, (802) 656-0188

To request accommodations such as seating, interpreting, etc. for this event please contact Conference and Event Services at conferences@uvm.edu or 802-656-5665 in advance of the event.