207th Commencement Ceremony

The University of Vermont

May 22, 2011
Universitas V. Montis

Text: David Cox

From the lofty peaks of Mansfield to the shores of Lake Champlain, comes a mighty swelling chorus, whose echo will remain:

Vermont! Vermont! Vermont! Our University!

Thy loyal sons and daughters sing in love and praise to Thee!

Shadows falling 'cross the campus, changing seasons' wondrous scene, stir our thoughts of Alma Mater, and her colors Gold and Green:

Vermont! Vermont! Vermont! Our University!

Thy loyal sons and daughters sing in love and praise to Thee!

Gaudeamus igitur

Second Verse by Z. Philip Ambrose, Professor of Classical Languages Emeritus

Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus;
Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus;
Post jocundam juventutem, post molestam senectutem, nos habebit humus, nos habebit humus.

Vivat nunc Mons Viridis, Sicut tunc Romani!
Vivat nunc Mons Viridis, Sicut tunc Romani!
Vivat lingua Caesaris! Vivat illa Socrates!
Viridimontani, Viridimontani!

Let's rejoice therefore while we are young; after pleasant youth, after troublesome old age, the ground shall have us.

Let Vermont now live, as once lived the Romans!
Let the language of Caesar live, let that of Socrates live, o Vermonters!

Message from the President

Dear Graduates, Families, Friends, and Colleagues:

Today, for the 207th time in the history of our institution, the University of Vermont community gathers to celebrate the accomplishments of our graduates and send them forth from this special place.

As the members of the Class of 2011 mark graduation, we naturally reflect upon some of the collective experiences of your time as University of Vermont students. Together across the past four years we have broken in a new student center and made it the hub of campus life, gathered to hear guest speakers from Jon Stewart to Dr. Cornel West to Gail Collins, rallied behind championship athletic performances, including a run to the NCAA Frozen Four hockey championship, and shared the historic moment of the 2008 presidential election.

While these shared experiences unite all of our students, it is the individual stories of influential professors, close friendships, and life-changing moments that will be at the core of the memories of our graduates for years to come. Though our graduates leave the University of Vermont student body today, they join the ranks of University of Vermont alumni—a rich, complex community that spreads to all corners of the world.

Families and friends, thank you for the support and care you have provided the graduates throughout their time at the University. You share in the accomplishment we celebrate today. On behalf of all of my colleagues, please allow me to say that we feel deeply moved and privileged to share this moment of pride and achievement with you.

HONORIS CAUSA

Billie Jean King
Doctor of Letters
Commencement Speaker

One of Life magazine's 100 most important Americans in the 20th century, Billie Jean King is a legend both for championship tennis and breaking barriers for women athletes. In her career she won 39 Grand Slam singles, doubles and mixed doubles titles, including a record 20 wins on the grass courts of Wimbledon.

In 1972, after capturing every Grand Slam singles title, King became the first female athlete to be named Sports Illustrated Sportsperson of the Year. She was also the first female athlete to win more than $100,000 in a year, a distinction King turned to revolution as men's prizes were often more than three times as much as women's.

King founded the Women's Tennis Association and the Women's Sports Foundation, out of which came WomensSports magazine. She co-founded World TeamTennis, the groundbreaking co-ed professional tennis league and, in 2007, GreenSlam, an environmental initiative for the sports industry.

King's most famous victory—saw to empower women and educate men—was her 1973 defeat in three straight sets of former men's champion Bobby Riggs. In 2008 she authored a book to commemorate the 35th anniversary of the historic match, Pressure is a Privilege: Lessons I've Learned from Life and the Battle of the Sexes, as the press dubbed the event.

In the Smithsonian Museum exhibit Sports: Breaking Records, Breaking Barriers, King is one of six athletes chosen as more than a champion. "The rare athlete is a true hero..." explains the exhibit's website. "The performances, in and out of athletics, of these extraordinary men and women change attitudes and conditions, and strengthen their communities."

For this work King has earned numerous honors, including the 2006 distinction of having the National Tennis Center, home of the U.S. Open, renamed the USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in honor of her contributions to tennis, sports and society on and off the court. She was also named Global Mentor for Gender Equality by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization in 2008.

Most prominently, in 2009 King was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian honor. But King's push for gender and GLBT equality continues as she serves on the boards of the Women's Sports Foundation, the Elton John AIDS Foundation and other endeavors.

Letitia Copeland Biddle
Doctor of Laws

Letitia Copeland Biddle, UVM Class of 1983, is the executive director and founder of the Churchill Institute for Leadership Development (CHILD), a non-profit organization dedicated to providing school leaders with best practices in leadership, management, and curriculum. The organization has a special focus on improving schools in economically disadvantaged communities.

Biddle, who graduated from the University of Vermont with a bachelor's degree in elementary and special education, founded the institute after working to reestablish the Gesu School in Philadelphia, the only independent, Jesuit/Immaculate Heart of Mary, inner-city elementary school in the United States. When the Gesu parish was forced to dissolve in 1993 due to financial hardship and urban deterioration, Biddle was one of several who worked to keep the parish school open independently. The Gesu School survived and has become a model for inner-city schooling nationwide via Biddle's foundation (previously named the Gesu Institute). CHILD strives to help schools set visionary goals and meet them in the context of a sustainable future.

Biddle, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, has taught in the Philadelphia public schools and privately tutored children with learning disabilities. In 2006, she co-founded The Academy in Manayunk, a school for children with moderate to severe learning disabilities. The academy provides rigorous learning opportunities for children grades 1-12 with language-based learning disabilities such as dyslexia, dysgraphia, and dyscalculia.

Biddle serves as a member of the Catholic Partnership School board of directors and the Gesu Scholarship Fund. She previously served on the board of the Andalusia Foundation, a museum dedicated to the preservation of one of America's foremost Greek revival manor houses, its furnishings, art and property on the Delaware River in Pennsylvania.

Biddle is also the former chair of Arthur Ashe Youth Tennis and Education (AAYTE), an organization that helps provide opportunities for children, many of whom are from under-served, at-risk, and multicultural populations. She launched the capital campaign to build the $12 million dollar AAYTE complex in East Falls, Pennsylvania, and worked to incorporate "Reading Is Fundamental" into the program.

Michael D. Dubie
Doctor of Laws

Major General Michael D. Dubie, UVM Class of 1982, has spent the last 30 years in high-ranking military leadership positions and is currently the Adjutant General of the State of Vermont, serving as the senior uniformed officer in the state responsible for the organization, training, and equipage of the 4,000 members of the Vermont Army and Air National Guard. He also serves as inspector and quartermaster general and head of the State Military Department, including Veterans Affairs. On the national level, Dubie is president of the Adjutants General Association of the United States.

General Dubie began his military career in 1979 in the Army Reserve Officer Training Corps program at UVM and simultaneously joined the 150th Aviation Battalion in the Army National Guard. While a student, he held positions of leadership in the Army ROTC program, Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, Greek Coordinating Council, UVM rugby club, and the Student Judiciary Board. He was commissioned as a second lieutenant, Armor Branch, in 1981 and later transferred to the Vermont Air National Guard to pursue his dreams of becoming a pilot. Throughout his military career, Dubie held a variety of command, supervisory and staff positions at the 158th Fighter Wing and at Vermont Joint Forces Headquarters.

Additionally, Dubie commanded the 447th Air Expeditionary Group at the Baghdad International Airport and served as Director of Staff for the 352nd Air Expeditionary Wing, Balad Air Base, Iraq. He is a command pilot with more than 2,000 military flying hours in trainer and fighter aircraft and has logged over 7,000 as a commercial airline pilot. Dubie’s exemplary military service has resulted in him being a highly decorated officer and head of Global Equities. He grew that business from a relatively small entity into a large global entity with more than $2.5 billion in revenues, later becoming chairman of JP Morgan Chase’s Global Equities Division before retiring in 2009.

He and his family have been active members of their community. Lisman has been a long-time supporter of American Forests, one of the nation’s oldest conservation organizations; he serves on the boards of the Shelburne Museum and the Vermont Symphony Orchestra. He was an early and remains an active supporter of the Boys and Girls Club’s “Early Promise Program,” an initiative with transformational potential for Burlington’s Old North End children, and has a joint effort with the Preservation Trust of Vermont to restore the tree canopy of Vermont’s smaller communities.

Keith M. Miser
Doctor of Laws

Keith M. Miser is a national leader in the field of higher education student affairs—a practitioner, thinker, teacher, and mentor who has significantly advanced his field. After earning his bachelor’s, master’s, and doctoral degrees from Indiana University in his home state, Miser’s career soon brought him to Vermont, where he would serve the university in several roles across seventeen decades.
Throughout his career, Miser has held numerous positions of leadership in professional organizations, has given more than eighty-five presentations at national and regional conferences, and has published twenty-five articles or chapters in professional literature in higher education.

Simon Pearce

Doctor of Humane Letters

Simon Pearce is a glassblower, master craftsman, and visionary business leader. The Vermont company that bears his name makes and sells handmade tableware world-renowned for blending clear glass, graceful forms, and practical designs.

Pearce has followed a lifelong passion to create glassware and pottery using skilled hand labor and old-world techniques. From this passion, success has followed: Simon Pearce operates four workshops, nine retail stores, and two restaurants. His products are available at hundreds of independent retailers in the United States and by mail order.

As a boy, Simon Pearce dug clay for his father's pottery in County Cork, Ireland. He knew from an early age that he wanted to work with his hands. A dyslexic, he left school at age 15 and the next year was apprenticed to a potter in New Zealand. There, he “learned how to work,” he says. After two years, he returned to Ireland to make pottery with his father.

But he had always been enchanted by antique glassware and soon began to seek instructors to teach him the deceptively difficult art of handblowing glass. This took him from the Royal College of Art in London to glass factories in Amsterdam, Venice, and Sweden to learn how to make traditional glassware. “I was interested in making functional, everyday glass, not one-of-a-kind art pieces,” he says.

In 1971, he opened his own glassblowing workshop in Kilkenny, Ireland. He spent thousands of hours perfecting his craft and developed a loyal group of customers in Europe and beyond. But it took eight years before Simon Pearce turned a profit, and though he loved Ireland he grew frustrated with the limited infrastructure and high cost of energy there.

So, following long tradition, he decided to make a fresh start in America. In 1981, he moved his business and family to a historic mill on the banks of the Ottauquechee River in Quechee, Vermont. From there, his glassware became famous and the business grew. Today, Simon Pearce employs nearly 400 people, with workshops in Vermont, Pennsylvania, and Maryland, and stores on Park Avenue in New York and Newbury Street in Boston among others.

Every piece of his company’s glassware and pottery continues to be made by hand.

Pearce’s company is now headquartered in Windsor, Vermont, while the Quechee mill remains the flagship location for the company, attracting hundreds of thousands of visitors each year.

Simon Pearce and his wife, Pia, have four sons and live in Hartland, Vermont.

Thomas J. Sullivan, M.D.

Doctor of Science

Thomas J. Sullivan (1939-2010), UVM Class of 1962 and UVM College of Medicine Class of 1966, chose radiology as his specialty and, following a residency at the Medical Center Hospital of Vermont (currently Fletcher Allen Health Care), he performed locum tenens work that ultimately allowed him to practice in every hospital in Vermont during the late 1960s and 1970s. He eventually became a physician and faculty member at Dartmouth. His talent as a skilled physician and mentor was characterized by a colleague who said, “Tom was the consummate radiologist – well read, widely experienced, curious and deeply committed to his specialty. He not only practiced at an extremely high level, he was facile in passing on his knowledge to his students.” In 1993, nominated by the residents he taught, Dr. Sullivan received the Teacher of the Year Award at Dartmouth Medical School.

He resided in New Hampshire but his love of Vermont was preserved with his frequent visits to his house in Newport, Vermont. An accomplished pianist, it is there that Dr. Sullivan enjoyed playing his Steinway Grand Piano, a treasure he bequeathed to the University of Vermont Department of Music. In addition to his musical interests, Dr. Sullivan was an avid outdoorsman and naturalist.

Dr. Sullivan delivered outstanding service to the State of Vermont as a skilled and caring radiologist who served each hospital, some in the most rural parts serving the many patients of the far reaching corners of our state.

Dr. Sullivan demonstrated his affinity and gratitude to the University of Vermont College of Medicine with his extraordinary philanthropy and is recognized for his outstanding achievement for the benefit of the University of Vermont the result of his philanthropy. Dr. Sullivan has measurably helped to advance the mission and goals of the university through his unparalleled altruism and exceptional generosity. To date and in addition to the aforementioned Steinway Grand Piano, Dr. Sullivan is the single largest alumni donor to the UVM College of Medicine. Dr. Sullivan was clear that he wished for the College to benefit immediately from his gifts in order to meet the priorities of leadership and improvements for the students. To that end his philanthropy has been instrumental in the construction of a new state of the art Simulation Center, a 9000 square foot facility that is a collaborative project with the UVM College of Medicine, the UVM College of Nursing and Health Sciences and Fletcher Allen Health Care. In addition, Carpenter Auditorium in the Given Building has been renovated and upgraded to meet the demands of today’s technological requirements for teaching all students. For the foreseeable future, students of the UVM College of Medicine will continue to benefit from the vision and financial support provided by Dr. Sullivan.

At age 71, Dr. Sullivan died on December 7, 2010 following several years of quietly and courageously battling cancer. He is survived by his life partner, Deanna Howard, her two children Brian and Erica and his beloved beagles, Sonny and Joe.

Marion Brown Thorpe
Doctor of Humane Letters

Marion Brown Thorpe, UVM Class of 1938, was greatly influenced, both as a teacher and a friend, by UVM’s first woman faculty member, Bertha Terrill. Thorpe acquired from Bertha Terrill not only the academic foundation upon which she would build her own legacy as a teacher and scholar, but also the leadership skills that would bind her to generations of UVM students to come.

After graduating with a degree in home economics education in 1938, she went on to earn her Master of Science degree at Syracuse University, returning to join the faculty at UVM, where she taught home economics education for 33 years, retiring in 1974. Her students found in her not only an inspiring and gifted teacher but also a friend, mentor, and adviser who helped launch and sustain many a successful career during an era not known for its encouragement of women in America’s business and professional worlds.

The longest serving member of the Vermont Alpha Lambda Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, whose mission is to support women students and confer distinction on women educators, she was honored in 2008 for her 60-year affiliation with the group. She was recognized in 1987 for 50 years of service to the American Home Economics Association and received the Outstanding Alumni Award of UVM’s College of Agriculture and Life Sciences in 1999.

A self-described “ordinary person from the little town of Brandon, Vermont,” she remembers with fondness how Bertha Terrill helped many young women to meet their college expenses from her own savings. “She’d say, ‘You can’t always pay back the person who does something for you, but you can pass it on to someone else.'”

Marion Brown Thorpe has done exactly that, both during her tenure on the faculty and beyond. She and her late husband Norman established the Marion Brown Thorpe and Norman Thorpe Scholarship Fund to provide scholarship assistance to students in the Teacher Education Program.

The professor emerita inspired in her own students the same commitment to helping others that Bertha Terrill demonstrated so many decades ago. In 2001, a group of her former students established the Marion Brown Thorpe Student Enrichment Fund to honor her for her devotion to students and service to the University.

In her “Opening Reflection” at the university’s historic 200th Commencement Ceremony in 2004, Professor Thorpe said to the graduates, “I leave you with this. You may be only one person in the world. But you may be the world to one person.” At age 96, Marion Brown Thorpe has embodied the wisdom of those words for generations of UVM students and alumni.

RECESSIONAL

RECEPTION, Patrick Gymnasium Lobby

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY
Animal, Nutrition and Food Sciences

Peter Downs Krawczel, B.S. (University of Maryland) 2000; M.S. (Texas A & M University) 2006, Berwyn Heights, MD
Dissertation: Behavioral and Production Responses of Dairy Cows Housed in Competitive Conditions
Advisor: Dr. Richard Grant

Beth Helen Rice, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2003; M.S. (The University of Vermont) 2005, Middle Island, NY
Dissertation: Differential Effects of Industrially and Ruminant-Produced trans-Fatty Acids on Risk Factors for Coronary Heart Disease in Hartley Guinea Pigs
Advisor: Dr. Adam Lock

Biochemistry

Jolanta Teresa Krudysz-Amblo, B.S. (State University of New York at Stony Brook) 2000, South Burlington
Dissertation: Posttranslational Modifications and Activity of Natural Human Factor
Advisor: Dr. Kenneth Mann

Jeremy Wood, B.S. (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute) 2003, Enfeld, CT*
Dissertation: Unique Features of Prothrombinase Complex Assembly and Function on the Activated Platelet Surface
Advisor: Dr. Paula Tracy

Biological Sciences

Brittny Calabrese, B.S. (University of California) 2005, Plano, TX*
Advisor: Dr. Charles Goodnight

Carol Taylor-Burds, B.S. (Regis University) 2004, Ste. Genevieve, MO*
Dissertation: When Animal Housing and Strain Difference Matter: Cellular and Behavioral Studies in Mouse Offaction
Advisor: Dr. Rona Delay

Yone Jung Yoon, B.S. (Dankook University) 2000; M.S. (Yonsei University) 2002, Seoul, South Korea
Dissertation: Role of Spontaneous Electrical Activity on the Maturation of Dendritic Morphology and Network Function in the Chicken Spinal Cord
Advisor: Dr. Miguel Martin-Caraballo

Cell and Molecular Biology

Benjamin Bakondi, B.S. (University of Massachusetts Amherst) 1999; M.A. (Columbia University) 2003, New York, NY
Dissertation: Prionin-1 (CD 133)-Derived Adult Human Bone Marrow Stem/Progenitor Cells Provide Neuroprotection Through Tropic Support
Advisor: Dr. Jeffrey Spees

Daniel Christian Olson, B.S. (Evergreen State College) 2002, Burlington
Dissertation: Nitric Oxide and Hyponxia Inducible Factor – 1 in Airway Epithelial Barrier Regulation and Inflammatory Signaling
Advisor: Dr. Albert van der Vliet

Chemistry

Scott Robertson Geddes, M.Chem. (University of Edinburgh) 2006, Rothes, Scotland, UK
Dissertation: Application of Soft Ionization Aerosol Mass Spectrometry to Analysis of Complex Organic Aerosol
Advisor: Dr. Giuseppe Petrucci

Sandip Shashikant Naik, B.Tech. (University of Mumbai) 2004, Mumbai, India*
Dissertation: Polypeptide Based Block Copolymers: Hierarchical Approach Towards Nanossemblies
Advisor: Dr. Martin Case

Michael P. Stewart, B.S. (Villanova University) 2004; Kenneth Square, PA*
Dissertation: Anodic Electrochemistry: Organorhenium Catalyzed Electron Transfer Reactions of Unactivated Olefins and Anodically Induced Haptotropic Metal Migration of Chromium Naphthohydroquinoids
Advisor: Dr. William Geiger

Civil and Environmental Engineering

Bree R. Mathon, B.S. (Hofstra University) 1999; M.S. (State University of New York at Stony Brook) 2002, West Babylon, NY
Advisors: Dr. George Pinder, Dr. Donna Rizzo

Andrea Rebecca Pearce, B.A. (University of Virginia) 1997; M.S. (University of Maine) 2000, Starksboro
Dissertation: Combining Computational and Human Neural Networks: Using Modified Self-Organizing Maps to Explore Surface and Subsurface Hydrochemical and Biological Datasets
Advisor: Dr. Donna Rizzo

Computer Science

Tri Minh Tran, B.E. (Hanoi University of Technology) 2001; M.S. (Ohio University) 2004, Hanoi, Vietnam*
Dissertation: Efficiently Processing Join Queries over Data Streams: The Research on Three Problems
Advisor: Dr. Byung Lee

Materials Science

Di Chen, B.S. (Xiamen University) 2002; Nanyang, Henan, PR. China*
Dissertation: Applications of Acoustic Techniques to Targeting Drug Delivery and Dust Removal Relevant to NASA Projects
Advisor: Dr. Junru Wu

Sangtao Wu, B.S. (Fudan University) 2001; M.S. (Fudan University) 2004, Shanghai, China
Dissertation: Study of Grain Structure and Interfacial Structure in Organic Semiconductor Thin Films
Advisor: Dr. Randall Headrick

Mechanical Engineering

Ana Barbir, B.S. (Duke University) 1999; M.S. (Wayne State University) 2005, Split, Croatia*
Dissertation: Mechanobiology of the Rat Intervertebral Disc in Compression and Torsion
Advisor: Dr. James Iatridis

Microbiology and Molecular Genetics

Krista M. Brooks, B.S. (University of New England) 2005; Farnsend, MA
Dissertation: Characterization of the Folding and Catalytic Pathway of the glmS Ribozyme
Advisor: Dr. John Burke

Ian D. Odell, B.A. (Cornell University) 2005; Park City, UT
Dissertation: Modulation of Base Excision Repair by Nucleosomederived Factors: Human Cleavage Factor I, and Poly(A) Polymerase
Advisor: Dr. Sylvi Doublat

Natural Resources

Samir Doshi, B.S. (Purdue University) 2002; Valparaiso, IN
Dissertation: A Systems Approach to Ecological Restoration in Appalachia: Regenerating Degraded Coal Mined Landscapes to Develop Healthy Communities
Advisors: Dr. Saleem Ali, Dr. John Todd

Eric Garza, B.S. (Purdue University) 2001; M.S. (Indiana University) 2006; M.P.A. (Indiana University) 2006, Hobart, IN Dissertation: Reacting to the Peak: Multiple Criteria and Energy Return on Investment in Decision-Making
Advisor: Dr. Robert Costanza

*As of October, 2010
As of January, 2011
Dissertation: Towards an Applied Net Energy Framework
Advisors: Dr. Jon Erickson, Dr. Robert Costanza

Apisom Intralawan, B.Eng. (Kasetsart University) 1995; M.Eng. (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute) 1998; M.S. (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute) 2001; Chiang Rai, Thailand*
Dissertation: Land Use and Land Cover Change Dynamics and their Implications: A Case Study of Community along Mekong River
Advisors: Dr. Jennifer Pontius, Dr. Roelof Boumans

Rebecca E. Stanfield McCown, B.S. (Colorado State University) 2004; M.S. (The University of Vermont) 2006, Pittsburgh, PA
Advisor: Dr. Robert Nash

Joseph Anthony Carlton McNinns, B.S. (University of Minnesota) 2003; M.S. (University of Plymouth) 2004; Thompson, Manitoba, Canada
Dissertation: An Economic Approach to Testing Biodegradation: The Treatment and Fate of the Alkanolamine 2-[(Aminoethyl)amino] ethanol
Advisor: Dr. John Todd

Lauren Elisabeth Arms, B.S. (James Madison University) 2005, Burlington
Dissertation: Inflammation-Induced Plasticity in Micturition Reflex Pathways
Advisor: Dr. Margaret Vizzard

Matthew A. Nystoriak, B.A. (The University of Vermont) 2005, Melrose, NY*
Dissertation: Role of Voltage-Dependant Calcium Channels in Subarachnoid Hemorrhage-Induced Constriction of Intracerebral Arterioles
Advisor: Dr. George Wellman

James Henry Fox, B.A. (Castleton State College) 2003; M.A. (University of Massachusetts Dartmouth) 2007; Harvard, MA
Dissertation: Behavioral, Pharmacological, and Molecular Correlates of the Anxiolytic Effect of Voluntary Exercise in Male C57BL/6J Mice
Advisor: Dr. William Fails

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION

Educational Leadership and Policy Studies

John Daniel Abbott, B.A. (Bates College) 1987; M.Ed. (Saint Michael's College) 2003, Jericho
Dissertation: Wilderness Education, Identity & Student Development Theory: An Imperative for Inclusive Wilderness Programming in Higher Education
Advisor: Dr. Robert Nash

Carol L. Buck-Rolland, B.S.N. (University of Southern Maine) 1976; M.S. (Virginia Commonwealth University) 1980; Wattsfield*
Dissertation: In What Ways Can a Short Term Cultural Immersion Experience Influence Adult Learners?
Advisors: Dr. Susan Hasazi, Dr. Katharine Shepherd

Sarah A. Meachern

BIOLOGICAL SCIENCE PROGRAM

SCHOLARSHIP AWARD presented to students who have earned the highest scholastic average in their respective classes starting in the second year:
Clayton A. Barnes

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AND APPLIED SCIENCES

The following awards are presented to the graduating senior(s) with the highest scholastic grade point average in recognition of their continuous academic excellence and outstanding professional potential:

COMMUNITY ENTREPRENEURSHIP
Jacob R. Bobrow
Robert W. Mullins

COMMUNITY AND INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT
E. Claire Goodwin

PUBLIC COMMUNICATION
Lindsey W. Bachelder
Molly D. Dunham-Friel

SCHOLASTIC RECOGNITION of the top ten percent of seniors with a major in Community Development and Applied Economics based on cumulative grade point average:
Clare E. Albers
Michael J. Verla
Caroline O. Caligari
Annie E. Whalen
Elizabeth M. Durfee
Karla A. Young-Eagle
E. Claire Goodwin

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AND APPLIED ECONOMICS TEACHING ASSISTANT AWARD presented to an outstanding student.exhibiting excellence in the classroom as an undergraduate teaching assistant:
Michael G. Nazzaro

DEPARTMENT OF MICROBIOLOGY AND MOLECULAR GENETICS

WARREN R. STEINBRING OUTSTANDING SENIOR IN MICROBIOLOGY AWARD in recognition of academic excellence and professional growth:
Nicole J. Ferland

DEPARTMENT OF NUTRITION AND FOOD SCIENCES

NUTRITION AND FOOD SCIENCE FACULTY AWARD presented annually by the department faculty to the graduating senior with the highest scholastic grade point average in recognition of their continuous academic excellence and outstanding professional potential:
Jennifer L. Moltz

CORNELIA WHEELER IRISH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP presented annually in the fall semester to a student majoring in dietetics or nutrition and food sciences whose continuous academic excellence, financial need, and demonstrated potential for success in a career in human nutrition has distinguished her or him from their peers:
Hannah J. Joerg

AGNES T. POWELL AWARD presented annually to graduating seniors majoring in Dietetics who have demonstrated qualities indicating outstanding professional promise and potential:
Erin E. Shippee

BERTHA TERRILL AWARD was created as a tribute to Miss Bertha M. Terrill and her 31 years of service at UVM. Bertha Terrill is remembered as the founding Chair of the Department of Home Economics, the first Dean of Women and the first woman Full Professor at UVM. The purpose of this award is to recognize a student(s) who shows special academic promise and achievement:
Danielle T. Leahy

BLAIR WILLIAMS AWARD to the graduating senior who best exemplifies the qualities of Professor Williams’ excellence in the areas of human nutrition and food, and her deep concern for people:
Kimberley A. Davy
NUTRITION AND FOOD SCIENCES RESEARCH AWARD presented to the graduating senior(s) who has excelled in undergraduate research while maintaining high academic standards and has demonstrated outstanding potential for a career in either basic or applied research in nutrition and food sciences:

Emily A. Potter
Benjamin E. Raymond

OUTSTANDING DIETETICS STUDENT AWARD presented by the American Dietetics Association. Its purpose is to recognize the emerging leadership and achievement of students in association-accredited dietetics education programs and encourage their participation in The American Dietetics Association. Leadership and professional potential are assessed through honors, student dietetic association activities, and community service activities:

Jamie G. Sheahan

DEPARTMENT OF PLANT BIOLOGY

SUPERIOR PERFORMANCE AWARD presented by the faculty in Plant Biology each year to a senior(s) in the department with a superior academic record and investment in research and teaching activities of the department:

Derrick T. Deming

DEPARTMENT OF PLANT AND SOIL SCIENCE

AGRONOMY, SOILS AND SUSTAINABLE AGRICULTURE SENIOR RECOGNITION AWARD presented by the Department of Plant and Soil Science to an outstanding student with an interest in agronomy, soils, or sustainable agriculture:

Dylan C. Badger

AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR HORTICULTURE SCIENCE COLLEGIATE SCHOLARS AWARD presented to the student(s) who are in the top 15% in their junior or senior class and are active in campus organization, clubs and/or provide service to their department:

BOULDER SOCIETY
Founded in 1905, the Boulder Society at the University of Vermont is one of the oldest existing traditions at the university. A men’s honor society, it includes those senior men who have shown dedication, devotion, scholarship and leadership. Most of the members’ activities are heavily focused on community service. These men will be wearing Green and Gold Honor Cords, distinguishing them as members of Boulder.

Guest Information

The following information is provided to help our guests find the services they need on campus during Commencement on Sunday, May 22, 2011. Specific information is provided for both the planned outdoor ceremony and, in the event of severe weather, the alternative venue indoors at the Multipurpose Facility at the Athletic Complex. Information which is not identified specifically for the outdoor ceremony or indoor ceremony is common to both.

Information Center

Outdoor Ceremony: Information tables can be found at the Student Service Center in the main lobby of the Waterman Building and on the University Green north and south of the Waterman Building.

Indoor Ceremony: Information tables can be found in the main lobby of Patrick Gymnasium and at the Student Service Center in the main lobby of the Waterman Building.

Snacks, Refreshments and Dining Options

The MarketPlace, located on the 2nd floor of the Davis Center, is open from 7 am to 3 pm serving deli sandwiches, salads, fruits, snacks, and beverages. Henderson's Café, located in the UVM Bookstore in the Davis Center, serves a selection of specialty coffees. Hours are 10 am - 3 pm.

Outdoor Ceremony: Snacks and refreshments (hot dogs, sandwiches, fruit, cookies, muffins, chips and beverages) are available for purchase from 6:30 am to 2:00 pm under the Concession Tents on the University Green, and in front of Patrick Gymnasium from 7 am to 2 pm serving ‘to go’ sandwiches and salads, stacks, and beverages.

Indoor Ceremony: Snacks and refreshments (hot dogs, sandwiches, fruit, cookies, muffins, chips and beverages) are available for purchase from 6:30 am to 5:00 pm under the Concession Tent in front of Patrick Gymnasium.

Restrooms

Outdoor Ceremony: Portable restrooms are located on South Prospect Street, north and south of the Waterman Building and in the Waterman Building at the College Street entrance. All indoor restrooms and the unit located on the south end of South Prospect Street are handicapped accessible.

Indoor Ceremony: Restrooms are located in the main lobby of the Patrick Gymnasium and portable restrooms are located outside the entrance to the main lobby of the Multipurpose Facility. All restrooms are handicapped accessible.

Indoor Viewing of Main Ceremony

Outdoor Ceremony: Families and friends may view the main commencement ceremony indoors on large screen closed-circuit TV in Memorial Lounge on the main level of the Waterman Building or in the Billings/Ira Allen Lecture Hall.

Special Needs

Ushers wearing yellow vests are available to assist with requests for: FM hearing impaired devices, commencement programs in Braille, special assistance seating.

Flower Sales

Outdoor Ceremony: The Golden Key International Honour Society is selling flowers in two locations on the University Green both north and south of the Waterman Building.

Indoor Ceremony: The Golden Key International Honour Society is selling flowers in the main lobbies of both the Patrick Gymnasium and the Multipurpose Facility.

UVM Bookstore

The UVM Bookstore is located in the Davis Center. It offers an assortment of UVM clothing, gifts, diploma frames, and other merchandise. The Bookstore will be open 6:30 am - 5:00 pm.

Outdoor Ceremony: In addition to the Bookstore in the Davis Center, a Kiosk will be set up on the University Green for last minute purchases. The Kiosk will be open 6:30 am - 2:00 pm.

Indoor Ceremony: In addition to the Bookstore in the Davis Center, the Kiosk in Patrick Gymnasium will be open from 6:30 am to 4:30 pm for last minute purchases.

Commencement Photographs

University Photography will be on hand to take candid photographs of the event. Those photographs will be posted on the commencement website shortly after May 22nd. Please contact your college/school for information regarding photography of your college/school ceremony.

Commencement DVD

A 90-minute video of the 2011 Commencement Ceremony is available from the UVM Bookstore at $19.99 plus $5.99 shipping and handling (allow 4 weeks for delivery). The Bookstore may be reached by phone: (802) 656-5280 or toll free (800) 551-7305, email: UVMBookstore@uvm.edu, or on the web at http://uvmbookstore.uvm.edu/.

Emergencies

In the event of a true emergency, dial (802) 656-5473 from a cell phone to reach the UVM Police Services or use one of the ‘Blue Light’ emergency phones located throughout the campus. In either case you will be connected immediately with the emergency dispatcher.
ACADEMIC REGALIA

The Academic Costume worn today in U.S. colleges and universities is a survivor of the Middle Ages. The University of Vermont was among the first in this country to experiment with the use of academic gowns, requiring their wearing at the graduation of 1806. The experiment was not repeated until mid-century when UVM and other colleges began wholeheartedly to use the medieval scholar’s clothing for ceremonial occasions.

The code regulating academic costume is administered by an intercollegiate commission that establishes uniform standards. BACHELORS’ gowns have closed fronts and long, pointed sleeves. MASTERS’ gowns may be worn open or closed and have oblong sleeves open at the wrist, the lower portion hanging down with an arc near the bottom. DOCTORS’ gowns may be open or closed and have velvety facings and three velvet bars on the round, open sleeves. The facings and bars may be of black or of the official colors of the wearer’s department of learning.

Hoods are usually black. All are lined in silk in the academic color or colors of the institution conferring the degree, with a chevron for additional colors. A University of Vermont hood is lined with green, with a gold chevron, the official school colors. The color of the hood border indicates the degree earned.

The Black Mortarboard is worn for all degrees. Only Doctors’ caps may be made of velvet and only Doctors or Presidents of institutions may wear a gold tassel on the cap.

The Class of 1927 Memorial Mace is carried by the University Marshal at formal university occasions and is displayed on the platform during these ceremonies.

The Mace, a gift from the Class of 1927, is forty-seven inches long, cast bronze, plated in silver, with a black ebony handle. The sculpture on one of the four sides depicts the center section of Old Mill with Mt. Mansfield in the background, symbolizing the founding of the University. Other sides display three students reaching upwards to a lamp, symbolic of learning; the Ira Allen Chapel, symbolizing spiritual guidance; and a group of four persons, symbolizing friendship. It is crowned by the seal of the University.

The Mace was designed and the model sculpted by Richard Simpson, son of Carl G. and Doris Griffith Simpson, both members of the Class of 1927.

The University Seal or Medallion was adopted in 1807 and used until 1871 when it was replaced by a round seal incorporating the name of the College of Agriculture. In 1975 the Board of Trustees voted to restore the original seal to official use, modified to incorporate the Latin name of the College of Agriculture.

The motto on the seal is from Horace, Epistles 1.2.36. Literally, it means “For virtuous studies and matters.” In the allusion to Horace’s poem it reflects UVM’s continuing belief in the utility and practicality of all liberal studies.
