Dear Graduates, Faculty, Families, and Friends,

Welcome to the 214th Commencement at the University of Vermont! Our ceremony this morning continues the tradition, established over two centuries ago, of convening the University community to honor our graduates.

Recently, a friend of the University sent me a Commencement Program from 1844 that survived almost two centuries to tell us of our past. I was struck by the sense of responsibility – they called it “duty” – the speakers conferred on the graduates with their degrees.

The Commencement speakers of 1844 stressed the responsibility of the graduates to become citizens and leaders on a national scale. The University alumni of that era certainly lived up to those expectations. Andrew Harris, who was the first African American to graduate from the University in 1838, became an inspiring leader in the abolitionist movement. Frederick Billings, who probably heard those addresses as a graduate of the Class of 1844, became President of the Northern Pacific Railroad and funded the building of Billings Library, one of the architectural gems of our campus. I know that this talented group of graduates today also will become vital and transformative leaders of the global community.

Members of the Class of 2015, we hope that you will return home to this campus often and remain active in the life of the University as you progress through your careers. We look forward to news of your continued accomplishments!

Congratulations to all!

HONORIS CAUSA

Nina Totenberg
Doctor of Humane Letters
Commencement Speaker

Nina Totenberg is one of the nation's preeminent legal affairs correspondents. Her award-winning coverage of the Supreme Court and legal affairs across the country airs regularly on National Public Radio's All Things Considered, Morning Edition, and Weekend Edition. She is also a frequent panelist and guest on television public affairs programs and has published articles in the New York Times Magazine, the Harvard Law Review, Parade Magazine, New York Magazine, among others. In 1991, her NPR report on Law Professor Anita Hill's allegations of sexual harassment against Supreme Court nominee Clarence Thomas prompted the Senate Judiciary Committee to reopen Thomas's confirmation hearings and ultimately initiated a national paradigm shift regarding sexual harassment in the workplace. The American Bar Association (ABA) has honored her seven times, and she has received numerous awards in journalism and broadcasting. She has been consistently recognized for her broad knowledge of the U.S. legal system, her persistence in following leads, her meticulous journalistic integrity, and her courageous coverage of controversial topics.

After landing her first job writing fashion stories and wedding announcements, Ms. Totenberg worked hard to gain news experience and eventually became a political reporter before proving her special talent for legal reporting at the National Observer. While writing background reports on the Supreme Court, she carefully studied legal briefs and educated herself on legal decisions and key issues; her astute understanding and skilled communication of Supreme Court decisions earned a Silver Gavel Award from the ABA. She quickly became known for her well-documented reporting and her unrelenting hard work. In 1975, she became NPR's legal affairs correspondent. At NPR, she covered the background of every nominee to the Supreme Court, the Iran-Contra scandal, and revealed that Douglas H. Ginsburg, nominated for the Supreme Court by President Ronald Reagan in 1987, had openly smoked marijuana while teaching at Harvard Law School.

Ms. Totenberg has consistently fought for freedom of the press and for public access to government information. She has received intense criticism for her controversial reports from detractors across the spectrum of political opinion. In 1992, she refused to reveal her sources for the Anita Hill report to a Senate committee; the committee's special counsel sought a contempt citation against her, but did not succeed. For that coverage, she earned the George Foster Peabody Award and the Alfred I. DuPont Award, the top two journalism awards. Her coverage of the Clarence Thomas scandal sparked a national dialogue about sexual harassment that permanently changed codes of professional conduct in the workplace. The number of sexual harassment suits skyrocketed in the ensuing years, creating legal precedents that continue to protect American workers today.

Over the course of her distinguished career, Ms. Totenberg has also received the Sigma Delta Chi Award from the Society of Professional Journalists; the Carr Van Anda Award from the Scripps School of Journalism; the George Polk Award for excellence in journalism from Long Island University; and the Joan S. Barone Award for excellence in Washington-based national affairs/public policy reporting. In 1998, the National Press Foundation named her Broadcaster of the Year and gave her the Sol Taishoff Award for Excellence in Broadcasting making her the first radio journalist to receive this accolade. The American Judicature Society honored her by giving her their inaugural award for a body of work in the field of journalism and law.

For over four decades, Ms. Totenberg has educated and informed the public about the most important legal decisions made in this country, and her fearless and consistently nuanced reporting has made major contributions to the American understanding of the legal system.

David H. Barlow
Doctor of Science

David H. Barlow, UVM Class of 1969, is one of the most influential clinical psychologists of our time with an international reputation for his development of treatments for anxiety and related disorders. He has long had strong ties to the University of Vermont and completed his doctorate at UVM in 1969. Highly regarded as a leading spokesperson for the field of clinical psychology and a renowned researcher in anxiety, he is currently Professor of Psychology and Psychiatry and Founder and Director Emeritus of the Center for Anxiety and Related Disorders at Boston University. He was previously Distinguished Professor in the Department of Psychology and Director of the Phobia and Anxiety Disorders Clinic at the University at Albany, State University of New York. He has published over 600 peer reviewed research articles and over 75 books and clinical manuals, in the areas of anxiety and related emotional disorders and clinical research methodology. His books have been translated in over 20 languages, including Arabic, Chinese, Hindi, and Russian. His research has changed the understanding of anxiety, panic, and related emotional disorders and made major contributions to the development of treatments for these problems.

After completing his degree in Psychology at Notre Dame, he earned his doctorate at UVM. He benefitted from the innovative approach to clinical research of his UVM mentors, Harold Leitenberg, now Professor Emeritus of Psychology, and Stewart Agras from the Department of Psychiatry. As his career progressed, he continued to work with UVM colleagues. As a fellow at the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences at Stanford University in 1997, Dr. Barlow collaborated with Mark Bouton, Green and Gold Professor of Psychology at UVM, and Sue Mineka, now Professor of Psychology at Northwestern University, to create an updated theory on the origins of panic disorder.

Dr. Barlow has served on the faculty at the University of Mississippi Medical Center, Brown University, and the State University of New York at Albany. At the State University of New York Dr. Barlow founded the Center for Stress and Anxiety Disorders, which became a large federally funded research clinic. His work at the Center for Stress and Anxiety Disorders resulted in a paradigm shift in the understanding of generalized anxiety disorder and panic disorder.

Over the course of his distinguished career, Dr. Barlow has received over 30 awards and honors, including the American Psychological Association Distinguished Scientific Award for the Applications of Psychology in 2000; a Career/Lifetime Achievement Award from the Association for Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies in 2008; and an award in appreciation of outstanding achievements from the General Hospital of the Chinese People’s Liberation Army, Beijing, China, with an appointment as Honorary Visiting Professor of Clinical Psychology. Previously, he served as President of the Division of Clinical Psychology of the American Psychological Association, President of the Association for Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies, Chair of the American Psychological Association Task Force on Psychological Intervention Guidelines, and as a member of the DSM-IV Task Force of the American Psychiatric Association.

His dedication to the application of scientific principles of psychology for the relief of human suffering has helped countless people and significantly advanced treatments for disorders of emotion around the world.

Ian D. Boyce
Doctor of Humane Letters

Ian D. Boyce, UVM Class of 1989, has served the University of Vermont with dedication and passion as a student and an alumnus. A well-rounded student athlete, he served as an orientation leader, on presidential committees, and in the Boulder Society, among his many leadership activities as an undergraduate at UVM. Celebrated as one of the best two-way forwards in UVM Catamount history, he led the hockey team to compete in its first NCAA Hockey Division I tournament in 1988. He served as captain on the only UVM team to reach the ECAC Division I Championship in 1989. His senior year, he received the Keith Miser Leadership Award and Semans Trophy for leadership, loyalty, and service to the University. Following graduation, he played professional hockey for over a decade and was inducted into the UVM Athletic Hall of Fame in 1999. He served as a member of the UVM Board of Trustees from 2005 to 2012, in the capacity of Board Chair for two years, and generously served on multiple committees to advance the University. His effective, patient, and respectful leadership was nurtured at UVM and has been further demonstrated through his business success, his commitment to continued service to his alma mater, and his strong desire to give back to his local community. Presently, he is a Certified Financial Planner and Managing Partner with Dickmeyer Boyce Financial Management, Inc., in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Mr. Boyce is one of the most recognized student athletes in the history of the UVM Athletics program. He was a key member of Coach Mike Gilligan’s first recruiting class in 1985-86. In 1987, he was one of two athletes to win the prestigious Harry Jerome Award honoring black Canadians accomplished in the fields of athletics, academics, and art. Mr. Boyce received the James Cross Coaches Award at UVM and the Joseph Tomasello Unsung Hero Award from the New England Hockey Writers Association.

After completing his undergraduate degree in Zoology with a minor concentration in Economics, Mr. Boyce played professional hockey for over a decade. After spending a year playing in Sweden, he spent two seasons with the Buffalo Sabre’s AAA affiliate in Rochester, New York of the American Hockey League. He then spent six seasons as an unrestricted free agent in the International Hockey League, including six seasons with the Fort Wayne Komets. He was a co-captain on the Komets’ Turner Cup championship team in 1992-1993 and was an IHL All-Star in 1997-1998. He was honored twice by the fans as Fort Wayne’s unsung hero, served as captain for three seasons, and received the Komets’ Gallmeier Memorial Trophy for community service twice.

Mr. Boyce began his career in financial services in 1998 at J.P. Morgan Chase. In 2004, he and Dave Dickmeyer founded Dickmeyer Boyce Financial Management, Inc., which now serves 260 clients and has $175 million in assets under management. In 2009, he was honored by the Department of Biology with the Accomplished Undergraduate Alumni Award for Distinguished Career Accomplishments in Science and Science Education at UVM.

An active alumni leader, Mr. Boyce has been and continues to be a true steward of the University. He regularly hosts alumni events across the country, served as a volunteer for his reunion class, and was instrumental in planning the 50th anniversary celebration of UVM men’s hockey. As a member of the UVM Board of Trustees, he served as Chair of the Board and Vice Chair of the Diversity Committee and as a member of the Executive Committee and the Annual Review Subcommittee. He worked on multiple Board Committees, including the Budget, Finance and Investment Committee, the Committee on Board Governance, and the Investment Subcommittee; he also was Chair of the first Campus Life Task Force, leader of the UVM/Fletcher Allen Health Care Affiliation Agreement Work Group, and co-leader of the UVM Foundation Work Group. He received the Distinguished Service Award from the UVM Alumni Association in 2014, and he currently is serving as a member of the Executive Campaign Council for the upcoming UVM Campaign. Throughout his academic, athletic, and business careers, Mr. Boyce has been consistently recognized for his leadership, exceptional service to his community, and his long-term commitment to his alma mater.

C. Norman Coleman
Doctor of Science
C. Norman Coleman, UVM Class of 1966, is a renowned radiation oncologist and dedicated public servant. He graduated with a B.A. summa cum laude in Mathematics from UVM. He currently serves in multiple leadership roles at the National Cancer Institute (NCI): Associate Director for the Radiation Research Program in the Division of Cancer Treatment and Diagnosis and Senior Investigator in the Research Oncology Branch in the Center for Cancer Research. Since 2004, he has been the Senior Medical Advisor and medical leader of the Chemical, Biological, Radiological, Nuclear and Explosives Threats team in the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response in the Department of Health and Human Services. After the September 11th attacks, he led teams of health and medical experts to create a comprehensive strategy that helped the United States government and emergency responders prepare for a terrorist attack involving radiological or nuclear materials. He traveled to Japan following the 2011 earthquake and used his strategy to help the Japanese respond to the tsunami-damaged nuclear power plants. He is the author of numerous scholarly articles and the much-acclaimed book Understanding Cancer: A Patient’s Guide to Diagnosis, Prognosis and Treatment. In 2011, he received the Service to America Homeland Security Medal from the Partnership for Public Service.

Dr. Coleman earned his medical degree at the Yale University School of Medicine in 1970. He completed an internship and residency in internal medicine at the University of California in San Francisco, a fellowship in medical oncology at the NCI, and a fellowship in radiation oncology at Stanford University. Board certified in internal medicine, medical oncology and radiation oncology, Dr. Coleman was a tenured faculty member at the Stanford University School of Medicine before joining Harvard Medical School in 1985 as Fuller-American Cancer Society Professor and Chairman of the Joint Center for Radiation Therapy. In 1999, he joined the NCI to create and become the Director of the NCI’s new Radiation Oncology Sciences Program, where he served as chief of the Radiation Oncology Branch until 2004. A distinguished academic, Dr. Coleman has authored hundreds of scholarly articles and written extensively in the fields of radiation modifiers and on preparedness and planning for radiological or nuclear emergencies. His book Understanding Cancer: A Patient’s Guide to Diagnosis, Prognosis and Treatment is one of his proudest accomplishments, because it helps cancer patients and their families understand scientific and technical language in cancer diagnosis, treatment, and survival.

Dr. Coleman has leveraged his medical expertise and his research leadership to serve his country and the world. In order to generate a comprehensive strategy for the United States to respond to a radiological or nuclear terrorist attack, he organized teams of experts to determine what levels of radiation exposure pose a danger to the human body; develop treatment schemes to increase chances of survival; create plans for managing a radiation crisis and dealing with mass casualties; and build a user-friendly website to aid doctors and others involved in treating, handling, and caring for radiation victims in the midst of a crisis.

When a 9.0-magnitude earthquake and tsunami struck Fukushima, Japan on March 11, 2011 and caused extensive damage to its nuclear power plants, Dr. Coleman immediately helped to implement his comprehensive response strategy. He flew to Japan with a team of experts and used the medical, scientific, and response guidelines that he had developed to help the U.S. Embassy and the Japanese government respond to the radiation that leaked from the plants and threatened the population and food and water supplies. National and international experts credit Dr. Coleman with providing an effective, rational, and scientific-based approach for dealing with the crisis in Japan.

Working with a global network of world-renowned experts including UVM colleagues, Dr. Coleman is creating the International Cancer Expert Corps to help address the crisis in cancer care for the underserved worldwide, including indigenous populations in the U.S. This is a novel approach designed to create a career-long opportunity for altruistic service and sustainable cancer care for the underserved. Dr. Coleman is one of UVM’s most accomplished alumni, recognized nationally and internationally for his generous public service and his significant contributions to the global community.

Soovin Kim
Doctor of Letters
Soovin Kim is an internationally renowned violinist known for his masterful performances. After winning first prize at the Niccolò Paganini International Competition early in his career, he went on to receive the prestigious Borletti-Buitoni Trust Award, an Avery Fisher Career Grant, and the Henryk Szeryng Foundation Career Award. He has performed around the world in some of the world’s most prominent venues, including Carnegie Hall; the Kennedy Center; Concertgebouw, Amsterdam; Queen Elizabeth Hall, London; Musikverein, Vienna; and the Seoul Arts Center. He has been a soloist with the Philadelphia Orchestra, San Francisco Symphony, Salzburg...
Mozarteum Orchestra, and Accademia di Santa Cecilia of Rome. He devotes much of his time to playing chamber music, primarily as first violinist of the Johannes String Quartet, as founder of the Made in Korea piano quartet, and at the Marlboro Music Festival in Vermont. As an active recording artist, he has commercially released four solo albums and seven chamber music albums. He is passionate about music education and previously taught at Yale University, SUNY Stony Brook, and Johns Hopkins University; recently, he joined the faculty of the New England Conservatory of Music. He is the Founder and Artistic Director of the Lake Champlain Chamber Music Festival, and he continues to make major artistic and philanthropic contributions to the Vermont community.

Mr. Kim grew up in Plattsburgh, New York. He spent five years playing in the Vermont Youth Orchestra (VYO) and performed as a teenager throughout the region with the Vermont Symphony Orchestra and at the UVM Recital Hall. Throughout his career, he has continued to perform regularly in Vermont with the Vermont Symphony Orchestra, in the Lane Series at UVM, at Middlebury College, with the Burlington Chamber Orchestra, and on Vermont Public Radio.

Currently, he performs a broad repertoire including Bach sonatas and Pagnini caprices for solo violin, Mozart and Vivaldi concerti, Romantic concerti, sonatas for violin and piano by Beethoven, Brahms, and Ives, and string quartets in addition to new works. Among Mr. Kim’s eleven commercial albums is Niccolò Paganini’s demanding 24 Caprices, named Classic FM magazine’s Instrumental Disc of the Month. Later this year, he will release a two-disc set of Bach's monumental six unaccompanied sonatas and partitas.

As his musical career flourishes, Mr. Kim continues to give back to the Vermont community where he enjoyed some of his formative artistic experiences. In 2008, he founded and continues to serve as the Artistic Director for the Lake Champlain Chamber Music Festival (LCCMF), one of the preeminent summer music festivals in the nation. LCCMF is recognized for enriching cultural life in Vermont through its performances, lectures, master classes, and outreach activities at venues such as the Elley-Long Music Center at St. Michael’s College, FlynnSpace, and the Burlington City Arts Center. With LCCMF, Mr. Kim has helped to establish and develop the ONE Strings program at the Integrated Arts Academy in Burlington, which makes violin lessons part of the regular curriculum for every 4th and 5th grade student.

An acclaimed and generous musician, Mr. Kim is dedicated to providing opportunities to young musicians at every level and serves as an active artist and patron of the arts in Vermont.

Holly and Bob Miller

Doctor of Humane Letters

Holly and Bob Miller are dedicated philanthropists, who have given outstanding long-term service to the University and the State of Vermont. Together they are passionately committed to making real change in the Vermont community and know how to accomplish their goals through working collaboratively with others. Their exceptional leadership and tireless work, has significantly advanced the mission of University of Vermont Medical Center (formerly Fletcher Allen) and expanded palliative care and clinical services in end-of-life care in Vermont. Knowing that education is a primary driver of change, they have given continued support to the University of Vermont, especially through the College of Nursing and Health Sciences, and to Champlain College. They have supported economic development in the region through their many contributions to the Champlain Exposition, the City of Burlington, and the Northeast Kingdom. The scope of their leadership and philanthropy extends across the Vermont community to many important organizations, including the Visiting Nurse Association and Hospice, the Boys and Girls Club, the Flynn Theatre, King Street Youth Center, and the Vermont Women’s Fund among many others.

For over three decades, Holly and Bob Miller have served the State of Vermont through volunteer leadership and philanthropy. As founder and owner of REM Development Co., the largest commercial real estate development firm in Vermont, Bob has provided extraordinary leadership that contributed to the development and economic success of the Champlain Exposition, the City of Burlington, and many projects in the Northeast Kingdom. Bob and Holly’s campaign efforts and philanthropy for Champlain College helped to build the Miller Information Commons, and more recently Bob built the Miller Center at Lakeside for the College. He served as Director of the Lake Champlain Chamber of Commerce and Chair of the Airport Commission at the Burlington International Airport. Among other key roles, Holly was a founding Director of the Vermont Caring for Nurses Initiative, UVM was one of the founding member of the Fletcher Allen Foundation Board and has served higher education as Trustee and Chairwoman of the Board for Champlain College.

The Millers have given significant support to the University of Vermont, especially through the College of Nursing and Health Sciences. Holly has served as a member of the College’s Advisory Board and a member of the Palliative Care Collaborative that includes UVM, the UVM Medical Center, and the VNA. Through the Holly and Bobby Miller Caring for Nurses Initiative, UVM was one of the first nursing programs in the country to adopt “The Healers Voice,” a course offering personal and professional support to nurses. Recently, the Millers helped to fund a Fellowship in Palliative Care for Nurse Practitioners (NPs), and their financial support led to a matching gift from the Milbank Foundation; the Fellowship will help NPs provide palliative care to Vermonters across the state.

The couple has worked together over many years to care for those in need in the Vermont community. Their generous philanthropy and committed leadership has supported the VNA and Hospice, the Boys and Girls Club, the Flynn Theatre, and the King Street Youth Center. Most recently, they donated Holly Court in Williston (a fifteen-acre site with a commercial building) to the UVM Medical Center. This donation, the largest single gift received by the UVM Medical Center, enables the hospital to meet its space and development needs and to ensure the highest quality of health care for Vermonters.

Holly has consistently provided leadership around systems of care that would improve the quality of life for Vermonters facing the end of life. She has been a champion of hospice through her volunteer work, her funded initiatives to improve the education and care nurses and physicians provide to patients at the end of their lives, her committee work with the Madison-Deane Initiative to advance public understanding of end-of-life care, and her role as a founder of Vermont Respite House. In 1995, the Visiting Nurse Association dedicated and named their Colchester headquarters The Holly D. Miller Building. In 1999, Holly received the VNA of America Volunteer of the year and was awarded The Vermont Medical Society Citizen of the Year in 2004.

The Millers have been honored as Vermont Philanthropists of the Year and received honorary degrees from Champlain College in 2009 and Champlain’s Distinguished Citizens Award in 1994. Bob and his company, REM Development Co., received the Visiting Nurse Foundation’s Community Service Award in 1993. Further, the Vermont Chamber of Commerce named Bob Citizen of the Year in 2008, and Senator Patrick Leahy presented a Congressional recognition in the same year to honor the “great achievement of a wonderful Vermont Businessman.” Together Holly and Bob Miller’s vision and determination have considerably improved quality of life and health care for Vermonters.

Annie Proulx

Doctor of Letters

Annie Proulx, UVM Class of 1969, is a best-selling author and winner of the Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Award for fiction. After establishing herself as an accomplished journalist, she began writing fiction and immediately met with considerable success. Two of her early stories appeared in the prestigious Best American Short Stories collections in 1983 and 1987. Shortly afterward, she published her first book of fiction Heart Songs and Other Stories in 1988. In 1992, she won the PEN/Faulkner Award for fiction with her first novel Postcards and was the first woman to win the award. With her second novel Shipping News published in 1993, she won the Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Award. She has since collected many literary accolades: the O. Henry Award (which she won twice), Irish Times International Fiction Prize, and The New Yorker Book Award for Best Fiction. Additionally, she has received fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Guggenheim. Recently, she composed a libretto for composer Charles Wuorinen to transform “Brokeback Mountain” into an opera.

Ms. Proulx lived for over three decades in Vermont. After earning her undergraduate degree in History at UVM, she entered a doctoral program in History at Sir George Williams University, but left her studies to pursue a career in journalism and settle in rural Vermont. Her articles appeared in such magazines as Esquire, Gourmet, and Country Journal. Over the course of thirty years, she lived in thirteen different Vermont towns and the landscape and people of the state inspired her work. Her award-winning first novel Postcards tells the tragic story of a Vermont farm family after World War II.

Ms. Proulx’s work is acclaimed for the complex portraits she paints of her landscapes, the compressed depth of her narratives, her dark comic voice, and her masterful and vivid prose. William Matthews of the New York Times writes, “her material is as richly worked as brocade” and calls her writing “gritty and gleaming.” Her study of history at UVM and as a doctoral student at the Sir George Williams University has had a strong impact on her work. The detailed knowledge of each place she portrays reveals her scholarly approach to her writing and the considerable research she conducts before and during the writing process. From her short stories to her novels, her narratives reveal the arc of history in the remote North American landscapes where people endure the hardships of weather, economic downturns, and forces beyond their control.

Two major films have been based on Ms. Proulx’s work, which has brought her books into mainstream culture and made her a household name. The Shipping News directed by Lasse Halstom and starring Kevin Spacey came out in 2001 and Brokeback Mountain directed by Ang Lee and starring Heath Ledger came out in 2005. Brokeback Mountain, based on her story of the same title from her collection Close Range, won three Academy Awards. She has brought her literary talents to music. She worked with composer Charles Wuorinen to transform “Brokeback Mountain” into an opera; she composed the libretto and the opera premiered on January 28, 2014 in Madrid.

Ms. Proulx is considered one of the most important American fiction writers of our time, and critics have compared her artistic achievements to William Faulkner, Theodore Dreiser, and Herman Melville. She has advanced the literary legacy of Vermont and made major contributions to American literature.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY
Animal, Nutrition, and Food Sciences
Simonne Marie Eisenhardt, B.A. Johnson State College (1999); Morrisville, VT*
Dissertation: The Effectiveness of an Online, Interactive, College Course In Energy Balance, Designed from a Framework of Behavioral Theories
Advisor: Dr. Stephen J. Pintauro
Benjamin Green, B.A. (Colby College) 2009; Kingston, MA*
Dissertation: An Investigation of Epigenetic Contributions to Inter-Animal and Age Dependent Variation in the Bovine In innate immune Response
Advisor: Dr. David E. Kerr
Esmond Boaat Nyarok, B.S.(University of Ghana) 2004; M.S. (University of Nottingham) 2007; Enfield, London*
Dissertation: Improved Recovery and Rapid Identification of Strains, Mixed Strains, Mixed Species, and Various Physiological States of Foodborne Pathogens Using Infrared Spectroscopy
Advisor: Dr. Catherine W. Donnelly
Suzanne Ishaq Pellegrini, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2007; Worcester, MA
Advisor: Dr. André-Denis G. Wright
Xi Qian, B.A. (Shanghai Ocean University) 2005; M.S. (Shanghai Ocean University) 2008; China*
Dissertation: Regulation of β-Casein Gene Expression by Octamer Transcription Factors and Utilization of β-Casein Gene Promoter to Produce Recombinant Human Proinsulin in the Transgenic Milk
Advisor: Dr. Feng-Qi Zhao
Xiaozheng Song, B.S. (Shandong University) 2006; Jinan Shandong, China*
Dissertation: Estrogen Receptor Beta is a Negative Regulator of Mammary Cell Proliferation
Advisor: Dr. Zhongzong Pan
Helen Walsh, B.S. (University of Humberside) 1992; M.S. (The University of Vermont) 2009; Tramore, Ireland*
Dissertation: Functional Properties of Whey Protein and its Application in NanoComposite Materials and Functional Foods
Advisor: Dr. Minguo Guo

Biochemistry
Adam Christopher Miranda, B.S. (University of New Hampshire) 2009; Weare, NH
Dissertation: Characterization of a Non-Canonical Function for Thromyl-tRNA Synthetase in Angiogenesis
Advisor: Dr. Amy Rumora, B.A. (Mount Holyoke College) 2007; Kalamazoo, MI*
Advisor: Dr. Robert J. Kelm
Lucas Edward Bernacki, B.S. (Sacred Heart University) 2007; Pittsburgh, PA
Dissertation: The Molecular Evolution of Non-Coding DNA and Population Ecology of the Spiny Softshell Turtle (Aplalone spinifera) in Lake Champlain Advisor: Dr. C. William Kilpatrick
Cristian de Sales Dambrós, M.S. (National Institute of Amazonian Reserva- 2010; Soledade, Brazil
Dissertation: Determinants of Termite Species Taxonomic, Phylogenetic, and Functional Diversity in the Amazonian Forest
Advisor: Dr. Nicholas J. Gotelli
Allison Theresa Neel, B.A. (The University of Vermont) 2009; Northfield, VT*
Dissertation: Local Mite Competition and The Sex Ratios of Malaria Parasites, with a Focus on Plasmodium Mexicancus
Advisor: Dr. Joseph J. Schall
Tyler August Picariello, B.A. (Boston University) 2009; Brockport, NY
Dissertation: Mechanism in the Guided Movement and Orientation of Basal Bodies Prior to Duplication in Paramecium Tetraurelia
Advisor: Dr. Judith L. Van Houten
Jonathan Vick, B.A. (Ohio Wesleyan University) 2009; Easton, CT*
Dissertation: The Contribution of Purinergic P2X and P2Y Receptors to the Excitability of Mouse Vomeronasal Sensory Neurons
Advisor: Dr. Rona J. Delay

Cellular and Molecular Biology
Brian Cunniff, B.A. (Elms College) 2007; Pittsfield, MA*
Dissertation: Mitochondrial Structure and Function as a Therapeutic Target in Malignant Mesothelioma
Advisor: Dr. Nicholas Heintz
Christian Sánchez Jordan, B.S. (Johns Hopkins University) 2007; Mayaguez, PR*
Dissertation: Helicase-SSB Interactions in Recombination-Dependent DNA Repair and Replication
Advisor: Dr. Scott W. Morrical
Joseph Patrick Klaus, B.S. (University of Saint Mary) 2006; Wipakoneta, OH*
Dissertation: Determining the Role of the Ergic-53 Cargo Receptor Complex in Arena Virus Propagation
Advisor: Dr. Jason W. Bottin
Jane Tully, B.S. (Colgate University) 2008; Westfield, MA*
Dissertation: Classical and Alternative Nuclear Factor-Kappa B in Lung Epithelium: Impacts in Allergic Airway Disease and Avenues for Redox Regulation
Advisor: Dr. Matthew Poynter

Chemistry
Xiaoxi Liu, B.S. (Tianjin Medical University) 2007; Tianjin, China*
Dissertation: Novel Aza-Prins Cyclization and 1,3-Dipolar Cycloaddition Toward N-Heterocyclic Molecules and Studies Toward the Total Synthesis of Borrecapine
Advisor: Dr. Stephen P. Waters
Corinne Sadiowski, B.S. (The University of New Hampshire) 2008; Adams, MA
Dissertation: Studies Toward the Total Synthesis of Subanacandene E Advisor: Dr. Stephen P. Waters
Yanbo Yang, B.S. (Shanxi Normal University) 2004; M.S. (Academy of Military Medical Sciences) 2007; Huainan, China*
Dissertation: PD*-Catalyzed Formal 1,3-Diaza-Claisen Rearrangement. Design and Development of Catatonic 1,3-Diaza-Claisen Rearrangement.
Advisor: Dr. Christopher Franklyn
Zhe Zhang, B.S. (Huaibai Institute of Technology) 2009; Jiangsu, China*
Dissertation: Application of a Ring Fragmentation/Azomethine Ylide 1,3-Dipolar Cycloaddition Sequence in the Synthesis of Demissidine
Advisor: Dr. Matthias Brewer

Civil and Environmental Engineering
Kalil O. Erazo, B.S. (Instituto Tecnologico de Santo Domingo) 2009; M.S. (Georgia Institute of Technology) 2012; Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic
Dissertation: Bayesian Filtering in Nonlinear Structural Systems with Application to Structural Health Monitoring
Advisor: Dr. Eric M. Hernandez
John Kasumba, B.S. (Makerere University, Uganda) 2005; M.S. (Clarkson University) 2008; Kampala, Uganda
Dissertation: Organic Chemical Characterization of Primary and Secondary Biodiesel Exhaust Particulate Matter
Advisor: Dr. Britt A. Holmén

Computer Science
Saurav Acharya, B.E. (Triibhuwan University) 2008; Kathmandu, Nepal*
Dissertation: Causal Modeling and Prediction Over Event Streams
Advisor: Dr. Byung S. Lee
Gary W. Johnson, Jr., B.S. (Marboro College) 2005; Burlington, VT*
Dissertation: Connecting Landscapes to People: Assessing the Distribution of Ecosystem Service Flows Using the SPAN Approach
Advisor: Dr. Robert R. Snapp
Narine Manukyan, B.S. (Yerevan State University) 2008; M.S. (The University of Vermont) 2011; Yerevan, Armenia*
Dissertation: Analysis and Modeling of Quality Improvement on Clinical Fitness Landscapes
Advisor: Dr. Peter S. Dodds

Commencement 2015

As of October 2014

Peter Euclide, Advisor: Dr. James D. Murdoch
Thesis: Using Empirical Mode Decomposition to Study Periodicity and Trends in Extreme Precipitation
Advisors: Dr. Christopher Danforth; Dr. Lesley-Ann Dupigny-Giroux
Lucas Tooker, B.S. (State University of New York, Plattsburgh) 2009; Saranac Lake, NY

Mechanical Engineering

Kyle Bruce, A.S. (State University of New York, Canton) 2005; B.S. (Clarkson University) 2007; Saranac, NY
Thesis: Characterization of Fillite as a Planetary Soil Simulant in Support of Rover Mobility Assessment in High-Sinkage/High-Slip Environments
Advisors: Dr. Mandar Dewoolkar; Dr. Dryver Huston

Melissa Kathleen Faletra, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2012; Scituate, MA
Thesis: Segregation of Particles of Variable Size and Density in Falling Suspension Droplets
Advisors: Dr. Jeffrey S. Marshall

Andrew Paul Fuhrmann, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2012; Holden, MA
Thesis: Effect of Rainfall Events on the Thermal and Moisture Exposure of Underground Electric Cables
Advisors: Dr. Jeffrey S. Marshall

Christopher Joseph Ghaizi, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2013; Williston, VT
Thesis: Measurement of Fluid and Particle Transport Through Narrow Passages
Advisors: Dr. Jeffrey Marshall

Daniel Hagan, B.S. (University of California, Berkeley) 2005; San Diego, CA
Thesis: Numerical Study of Particle Bed Scour by Vortices
Advisors: Dr. Yves Dubief

Meredith Ericson Koch, B.S. (Boston College) 2012; Norwalk, CT
Thesis: Mechanical Optimization of Poly (Vinyl Alcohol) Cryogels to Activate Osteochondral Mechano Transduction Pathways
Advisors: Dr. Rachael Oldinski

Stephen Pearson, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2011; West Dover, VT
Thesis: Nonlinear Ball Chain Waveguides for Acoustic Emission and Ultrasound Sensing of Ablation
Advisors: Dr. Dryver Huston

Dustin Smith, B.S. (University of Tampa) 2011; Clearwater, FL
Thesis: Understanding and Improving Microbial Biofuel Tolerance as a Result of Efflux Pump Expression Through Genetic Engineering and Mathematical Modeling
Advisors: Dr. Mary J. Dunlop

Natural Resources

Kathleen Bamford, B.A. (University of Massachusetts, Amherst) 2006; Springfield, MA
Thesis: The Role of Motivation and Curriculum in Shaping Pro-Sustainable Attitudes and Behaviors in Students
Advisors: Dr. Thomas Huespeth

Katharina Blofson, B.A. (Yale University) 1999; Philadelphia, PA

Kathryn M. Deely, B.A. (University of Notre Dame) 2003; B.S. (University of Notre Dame) 2003; Burlington, VT

Eliese Antoina Dykstra, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2010; Warwick, NY
Thesis: Using Stable Isotope Analysis to Estimate Black Bear (URSUS AMERICANUS) Diet in Vermont
Advisor: Dr. James D. Murdoch

Peter Eucide, B.S. (Kent State University) 2012; Kent, OH
Thesis: Fixed Versus Plastic Partial Migration of the Aquatic Macroinvertebrate, Myxus Dilutus, in Lake Champlain
Advisor: Dr. Jason D. Stockwell

Joanne Sandra Garton, B.S. (McGill University) 2002; B.S. (McGill University) 2008; Montpelier, VT
Thesis: Lidar Remote Sensing of Forest Canopy Structure: An Assessment of the Accuracy of Lidar and its Relationship to Higher Trophic Levels
Advisors: Dr. Alan M. Strong; Dr. Paul G. Schaberg

Chester Harvey, B.A. (Middlebury College) 2000; Galais, VT
Thesis: Measuring Streetscape Design for Livability Using Spatial Data and Methods
Advisor: Dr. Lisa Aultman-Hall

Mitchell Allen Jones, B.S. (Gettysburg College) 2012; Waynesboro, VA
Thesis: Modeling Consumption Rates of Atlantic Herring (Clupea harengus)
Advisor: Dr. Jason Stockwell

Jeffrey K. Krebs, B.S. (St. Michael’s College) 1995; Burlington, VT
Advisor: Dr. Jennifer A. Pontius

Louise Lintilhac, B.S. (Middlebury College) 2007; Stowe, VT
Thesis: Management by Crisis: Land Trust Conservation Engagement and Methods in Vermont
Advisor: Dr. Stephanie Kaza

Madeleine Morgan, B.A. (Mount Allison University) 2009; Concord, NH
Thesis: Collaboration and Conflict in the Adirondack Park: An Analysis of Conservation Discourses Over Time
Advisor: Dr. Patricia A. Stokowski

Timothy John Pede, B.S. (State University of New York at Oswego) 2012; Minoa, NY
Thesis: Exploring Relationships Between Building and Transportation Energy Use of Residents in U.S. Metropolitan Regions
Advisor: Dr. Brian Lee

Warren Vinson Pierce, III, B.A. (University of South Carolina) 2011; Richmond, VA
Thesis: Managing the Wilderness Experience at Olympic National Park: A Study of Day and Overnight Visitors
Advisor: Dr. Allan M. Strong

Jakob E. Schenker, B.A. (Skidmore College) 2010; Charlotte, VT
Thesis: Ecological Remediation Using Bacterial, Fungal, and Plant Micorcosms: An Effective Solution for Bunker C Crude Oil
Advisor: Dr. William S. Keeton

Catherine A. Webster, B.A. (Bucknell University) 2005; East Conway, NH
Thesis: Modeling Consumption Rates of Atlantic Herring (Clupea harengus)
Advisor: Dr. James D. Murdoch

Joel E. Schenker, B.A. (Skidmore College) 2010; Charlotte, VT
Thesis: Measuring Streetscape Design for Livability Using Spatial Data and Methods
Advisor: Dr. Lisa Aultman-Hall

Newspaper

Kathryn Curran Olds, B.S. (St. Lawrence University) 2012; Chazy, NY
Thesis: Inhibitory Control Efficiency in Successful Weight Loss Participants
Advisor: Dr. Hugh Garavan

Nursing

Eliza Weston Anti, A.S. (Castleton College) 2006; B.A. (Goddard College) 2009; Hardwick, VT
Thesis: The Health Care Provider’s Experience with Fathers of Overweight and Obese Children
Advisor: Dr. Carol Buck-Rolland

Shoshana Violette Aronowitz, B.A. (McGill University) 2009; Burlington, VT
Thesis: Sca smooth Behind a Door: The Experiences of Individuals Incarcerated Without Opioid Maintenance Treatment
Advisor: Dr. Amy O’Meara

*As of October 2014
As of January 2015
Stephanie Marcia Bless, B.A. (Sterling College) 2007; Erie, PA
Thesis: Physical Activity in Nature and Children’s Mental Health
Advisor: Dr. Brenda Hamel-Bissell

Katrina Marie Russo Burks, B.A. (Wellesley College) 1989; Duxbury, VT
Thesis: Mothers’ Perceptions of Workplace Breastfeeding Support
Advisor: Dr. Carol Buck-Rolland

Laura Catoe, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2010; Morgan, VT

Kristy Garbarino, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2008; South Burlington, VT
Lindsey Gaulderer, B.A. (The University of Vermont) 2005; Burke, VT
Advisor: Dr. Jean S. Coffey

Gayle A. Hagen-Peter, A.S. (Cape Cod Community College) 1982; B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2011; Underhill, VT
Thesis: Living With Aortic Stenosis: A Phenomenological Study of Patients’ Experiences and Subsequent Health Choices
Advisor: Dr. Sarah E. Abrams

Megan Houston, B.A. (The University of Vermont) 2009; South Burlington, VT
Thesis: Multi-Sensory Stimulation Environments for use with Dementia Patients: Staff Perspectives on Reduction of Agitation and Negative Behaviors
Advisor: Dr. Mary Val Palumbo

Christopher T. Ingvoldstad, B.A. (The University of Vermont) 2007; South Burlington, VT
Thesis: Transient Ischemic Attack (TIA) Guideline Knowledge and Perceived Barriers to Implementation Amongst Emergency Department Health Care Providers in a Rural State
Advisor: Dr. Jean S. Coffey

Leo Isaac Kline, B.A. (Smith College) 2005; Waltham, MA
Thesis: Health Care Provision to Transgender Individuals; Understanding Clinician Attitudes and Knowledge Acquisition
Advisor: Dr. Betty Rambur

Catherine Wanjiru Lawrence, B.S. (Africa Nazarene University) 2001; B.S.N. (University of Wyoming) 2008; Derby, VT
Thesis: Modifiable Risk Factors for Cardiovascular Disease as Perceived by Women in Kenya
Advisor: Dr. Sarah Abrams

Courtney Ledger, B.S. (University of Rochester) 1999; M.P.H. (Boston University) 2006; Melvins, PA

Devan Lucier, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2010; Townshend, VT

Stephanie Elizabeth Peever, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2008; South Burlington, VT

Maria Cochrane Pickrell, B.A. (The University of Vermont) 2008; M.P.H. (University of New England) 2010; Shrewsbury, VT

Elizabeth Ann Fruit Saxton, B.A. (The University of Vermont) 2009; Colchester, VT
Thesis: A Preliminary Study of Differences Between Voluntary and Involuntary Retirement From Driving: Quality of Life and Depression in a Rural Population
Advisor: Dr. Mary Val Palumbo

Lisa Lopatofsky Schaffer, B.A. (Dickinson College) 2007; M.Ed. (The University of Vermont) 2011; Burlington, VT
Thesis: The Lived Experience of Transgender College-Aged Students Receiving Healthcare
Advisor: Dr. Jean S. Coffey

Beth Schiller, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 1986; Essex, NY

Christopher Mills Vaughn, B.A. (The University of Vermont) 2006; Washington, D.C.
Thesis: The Self-Perceived Impact of an International Immersion Experience on the Cultural Competency and Professional Practice of Recently Graduated Registered Nurses
Advisor: Dr. Hendrika Malhy

Sarah Catherine Willard Wagner, B.S.N. (Norwich University) 2008; Underhill, VT

Nutrition and Food Sciences

Ning Liu, B.S. (Northeast Agricultural University) 2011; Harbin, China
Thesis: Effect of Radiation on Polymerization, Microstructure, and Microbiological Properties of Whey Proteins in Model System and Whey Protein Based Tissue Adhesive Development
Advisor: Dr. Mingydro Guo

Gil Fils Tansman, B.S. (McGill University) 2011; Boca Raton, FL*
Thesis: Exploring the Nature of Crystals in Cheese Through X-ray Diffraction
Advisor: Dr. Paul Kindstedt

Dong Zhang, B.S. (Shanghai Institute of Technology) 2012; Shanghai, China
Thesis: Chemical Composition, Prebiotic Survivability and Shelf Life Studies of Symbiotic Buttermilk
Advisor: Dr. Mingydro Guo

Pathology

Ivette Ariela Nuñez, B.S. (California State University, Northridge) 2011; Palmdale, CA
Thesis: Traumatic Brain Injury Causes Endothelial Dysfunction in Mesenteric Arteries 24 Hrs After Injury
Advisor: Dr. Kalev Freeman

Zhouwei Zhang, B.S. (Beijing University of Chemical Engineering) 2012; Chengdu, China*
Thesis: Investigation of DNA and RNA Markers by Novel Technologies Demonstrates DNA Content Intratumoral Heterogeneity and Long Non-Coding RNA Aberrations in Breast Tumors
Advisor: Dr. Mark F. Evans

Physics

Daniel J. Burrill, B.S. (Michigan Technological University) 2012; Bay City, MI
Thesis: Density Functional Theory Study of Dilute Transition Metal Phthalocyanines
Advisor: Dr. Adrian Del Maestro

Peter K. Harnish, B.A. (Miami University) 2010; B.S. (Miami University) 2010; Athens, OH*
Advisor: Dr. Valeri N. Kotov

Plant Biology

Nicole Bauman, B.S. (Clemson University) 2009; Concord, NC
Michael R. Blouin, B.A. (Pomona College) 2008; Sudbury, MA
William Levi Old, IV, B.A. (University of Montana) 2006; Norfolk, VA

Plant and Soil Science

Peter Dalton Austin, B.S. (Appalachian State University) 2008; Boone, NC
Thesis: An Evaluation of Vermicompost as a Fast-Acting Nitrogen Amendment to Mitigate Nitrogen Deficiencies in Organic Vegetable Production
Advisor: Dr. Josef Gorres

Meghan E. Knowles, B.S. (The University of Vermont) 2007; Northville, NY
Thesis: Earthworm Presence in Northern Forests: Impact on Distribution of Soil Carbon Within Aggregate Fractions
Advisor: Dr. Donald S. Ross

Lindsey Ruhl, B.A. (The Evergreen State College) 2007; Lancaster, PA
Advisor: Dr. Josef Gorres

PHI BETA KAPPA

Phi Beta Kappa, a national honor society dedicated to honoring high academic achievement for liberal arts students, was founded at the College of William and Mary in 1776. It is the nation’s first Greek-letter society and is the oldest and most respected academic honorary society. UVM’s chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, the Alpha of Vermont, was established in 1848; it is the eleventh oldest chapter on the national rolls of Phi Beta Kappa, and the first chapter to admit both African-Americans and women to its membership.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The Academic Costume worn today in U.S. colleges and universities is a survivor of the Middle Ages. The University of Vermont was among the first in this country to experiment with the use of academic gowns, requiring their wearing at the graduation of 1806. The experiment was not repeated until mid-century when UVM and other colleges began wholeheartedly to use the medieval scholar’s clothing for ceremonial occasions.

The code regulating academic costume is administered by an intercollegiate commission that establishes uniform standards. BACHELORS' gowns have closed fronts and long, pointed sleeves. MASTERS' gowns may be worn open or closed and have oblong sleeves open at the wrist, the lower portion hanging down with an arc near the bottom. DOCTORS' gowns may be open or closed and have velvet facings and three velvet bars on the round, open sleeves. The facings and bars may be of black or of the official colors of the wearer's department of learning.

Hoods are usually black. All are lined in silk in the academic color or colors of the institution conferring the degree, with a chevron for additional colors. A University of Vermont hood is lined with green, with a gold chevron, the degree, with a chevron for additional colors. The Black Mortarboard is worn for all degrees. Only Doctors' caps may be made of velvet and only Doctors or Presidents of institutions may wear a gold tassel on the cap.

The Class of 1927 Memorial Mace is carried by the University Marshal at formal university occasions and is displayed on the platform during these ceremonies.

The Mace, a gift from the Class of 1927, is forty-seven inches long, cast bronze, plated in silver, with a black ebony handle. The sculpture on one of the four sides depicts the center section of Old Mill with Mt. Mansfield in the background, symbolizing the founding of the University. Other sides display three students reaching upwards to a lamp, symbolic of learning; the Ira Allen Chapel, symbolizing spiritual guidance; and a group of four persons, symbolizing friendship. It is crowned by the seal of the University.

The Mace was designed and the model sculpted by Richard Simpson, son of Carl G. and Doris Griffith Simpson, both members of the Class of 1927.

The University Seal or Medallion was adopted in 1807 and used until 1871 when it was replaced by a round seal incorporating the name of the College of Agriculture. In 1975 the Board of Trustees voted to restore the original seal to official use, modified to incorporate the Latin name of the College of Agriculture.

The motto on the seal is from Horace, Epistles 1.2.36. Literally, it means “For virtuous studies and matters.” In the allusion to Horace’s poem it reflects UVM’s continuing belief in the utility and practicality of all liberal studies.

Text: David Cox

From the lofty peaks of Mansfield
to the shores of Lake Champlain,
comes a mighty swelling chorus,
whose echo will remain:

Chorus
Vermont! Vermont! Vermont!
Our University!
Thy loyal sons and daughters
sing in love and praise to Thee!

Repeat Chorus
Shadows falling ’cross the campus,
changing seasons’ wondrous scene,
stir our thoughts of Alma Mater,
and her colors Gold and Green:

Chorus
Vermont! Vermont! Vermont!
Our University!
Thy loyal sons and daughters
sing in love and praise to Thee!

Repeat Chorus

Gaudeamus igitur
Traditional University Song
Second Verse by Z. Philip Ambrose, Professor of Classical Languages Emeritus

Gaudeamus igitur, iuvenes dum sumus.
Post iucundam iuventutem, post molestam senectutem
Nos habebit humus.

Vivat nunc Mons Viridis, sicut tunc Romani!
Vivat lingua Caesaris! vivat illa Socratis!
Viridimontani!

So let's rejoice while we are young:
After pleasant youth, after troublesome old age, the ground will have us.

Let Vermont now live, as the Romans back then!
Let Caesar's language live, let that of Socrates live, Vermonters!
