SGA Code of Conduct

A recognized organization will be considered in good standing with the SGA if the following are correct:

* They act in accordance with the university common ground,

* They have not violated any university policy (please refer to the Code of Students Rights and Responsibilities http://www.uvm.edu/~uvmppg/ppg/student/studentcode.pdf)

* They conduct meetings that are open to all UVM undergraduate students who pay the Student Activities Fee,

* They adhere to the Student Government Association Constitution,

* They have an active student membership roster of ten (10) or more members (consisting of at least eight (8) members in addition to a president and treasurer),

* They conduct at least two (2) meetings a month that are open to all members, not including executive board meetings (practice for athletic clubs constitute as a meeting),

* They have read and agreed to the University of Vermont Hazing Policy,

* They have acted in accordance with all risk-management policies and procedures,

* They have submitted update sheets to the SGA by the established deadline,

* They have had at least one (1) member represent their club at the policy workshops held by the Student Activities Committee (extenuating circumstances will be considered by the Student Activities Committee),

* They have updated contact information for their current president, treasurer, and advisor submitted to the SGA at all times,

* They follow all financial policies as set forth by the Finance Committee and SGA Treasurer.

Any club that does not adhere to these guidelines set forth by the Student Activities Committee will be reviewed and will become subject to the sanctions outlined in the SGA constitution.

Any questions should be addressed to the current Student Activities Committee Chair.
