Student Government Association to host forum on University of Vermont Budget

This Wednesday, February 10th from 3-4pm in the Livak Ballroom, the University of Vermont Student Government Association will host a forum on the University of Vermont budget. The forum is titled: “The UVM Budget: A Student Perspective.”

The forum is designed to educate students on how the UVM budget affects them as students, including where tuition dollars go and how these dollars are incorporated into the general fund. No prior knowledge is needed of economics or finance.

Presentations will include Richard Cate, University of Vermont Vice President of Finance and Administration to give a brief overview of the budget. Their will also be a question and answer period and discussion time.

For questions or accommodations, please email uvmsga@uvm.edu
