

Copyright on teaching and curricula materials

Consistent with the University's policy on intellectual property rights, it is the College of Agriculture and Life Science's policy that teaching and curricular materials (including but not limited to classroom lectures, class notes, exams, handouts, and presentations) are the property of the instructor. Therefore, electronic recording and/or transmission of classes or class notes is prohibited without the express written permission of the instructor. Such permission is to be considered unique to the needs of an individual student (e.g. ADA compliance), and not a license for permanent retention or electronic dissemination to others.

For more information, please see the UVM policy on Intellectual Property, sections 2.1.3 and 2.4.1
