FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS

- $55 non-refundable fee (waived for Early Action Vermont residents)
- Official high school transcript
- School report
- Mid-year grades (first quarter grades for EA applicants)
- Official SAT or ACT scores sent directly from the testing agency
- One letter of recommendation

UVM considers your highest scores from any test date; applicants are encouraged to send all scores.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

- TOEFL or IELTS scores sent directly from the testing agency (for students whose first language is not English)
- Official, translated copies of any secondary school and university level work if the original is not in English

FINANCIAL AID & SCHOLARSHIP APPLICANTS

All applicants are automatically considered for merit scholarships.

- Submit the FAFSA by Feb. 1 for priority consideration, fafsa.ed.gov
- Vermont residents apply for state grants through the Vermont Student Assistance Corporation, (800) 642-3177 or (802) 655-9602.
- Out-of-State students, contact your state grant agency.

International students are not eligible for need-based financial aid and cannot fill out the FAFSA.
