Meet recent graduates

AKANE YAMAMOTO
Area of Study: Education  Country: Japan
Current position: Teach for Japan, Teacher

"UVM professors provide many opportunities to learn by doing. My environmental education professor connected me with a local school during my thesis research. That helped me realize the importance of education in making a better society, leading me to choose a career in teaching."

MOHAMED METWALLY
Area of Study: Electrical Engineering  Country: Egypt
Current position: Fast Enterprises, LLC, Consultant

"One of my best classes was a Circuit Design course. The professor was an IBM engineer with decades of experience. He made me excited about the learning experience."

XIECHENG YUAN
Area of Study: Finance and Accounting  Country: China
Current position: GE Capital in China, Financial Analyst

"I interned at a company that immediately hired me when I graduated from UVM. I got to apply what I learned in my classes in the real world — one of the most rewarding experiences of my college career."
