RESOLVED, that the Board ratifies the Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy Statement and the Equal Opportunity in Educational Programs and Activities Policy Statement, both effective as of March 1, 2006, attached hereto as Attachments A and B.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY/AFFIRMATIVE ACTION POLICY STATEMENT

UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT

March 1, 2006 – February 28, 2007

On this day, I am issuing a University of Vermont Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy Statement. Equal Opportunity programs are designed to prevent and deter discrimination. I am strongly committed to the principles of affirmative action to continue to protect and safeguard equal opportunity. It is my expectation that all members of our community will adhere to this policy. Compliance with this policy is important enough to be listed as a factor in all UVM employees' annual performance evaluations. Not only do we have economic, political, ethical and historical reasons for compliance; there are legal requirements by which we need to abide. Affirmative Action is a smart investment in human resources and will ensure that UVM is a diverse and distinguished working and learning environment that prepares its students to live and work in an increasingly multicultural society.

The University of Vermont and State Agricultural College is committed to a policy of equal employment opportunity and to a program of affirmative action in order to fulfill that policy. The University will accordingly recruit and hire into all positions the most qualified persons in light of job-related requirements, and applicants and employees shall be treated in employment matters without regard to unlawful criteria including race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, disability, age, positive HIV-related blood test results, status as a disabled or Vietnam-era Veteran, or gender identity or expression, as these terms are defined under applicable law, or any other factor or characteristic protected by law.

In addition, the University of Vermont recognizes that discriminatory harassment and sexual harassment are forms of unlawful discrimination, and it is therefore the policy of the University that discriminatory harassment and sexual harassment will not be tolerated.

Further, employees and applicants will not be subjected to harassment or retaliation because they have engaged in or may engage in the following: filing a complaint; assisting or participating in an investigation, compliance evaluation, or any other activity related to the administration of the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974 ("VEVRAA"), Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 ("Rehabilitation Act"), or the Affirmative Action provisions of federal, state or local law; opposing any act or practice made unlawful by VEVRAA, requiring equal employment opportunities for individuals with disabilities, disabled veterans, or veterans of the Vietnam Era; or exercising any rights under VEVRAA or the Rehabilitation Act.

Questions regarding this policy statement or compliance with its provisions may be directed to Kathryn Friedman, Executive Director, Diversity & Equity Unit/Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity, University of Vermont, 428 Waterman Building, Burlington, VT 05405 (802-656-3368). Questions may also be directed to government agencies having oversight and enforcement authority with respect to the referenced laws. POLICY STATEMENT ON EQUAL OPPORTUNITY
IN EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES

March 1, 2006 – February 28, 2007

On this day, I am issuing a University of Vermont Equal Educational Policy Statement. Equal Opportunity programs are designed to prevent and deter discrimination. It is my expectation that all members of our community will adhere to this policy. Compliance with this policy is important enough to be listed as a factor in all UVM employees' annual performance evaluations. Not only do we have economic, political, ethical and historical reasons for compliance; there are legal requirements by which we need to abide. Equal educational opportunity will ensure that UVM is a diverse and distinguished working and learning environment that prepares its students to live and work in an increasingly multicultural society.

The University of Vermont and State Agricultural College is committed to a policy of equal educational opportunity. The University therefore prohibits discrimination on the basis of unlawful criteria such as race, color, religion, national or ethnic origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, or gender identity or expression, as those terms are defined under applicable law, in admitting students to its programs and facilities and in administering its admissions policies, educational policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletics programs, and other institutionally administered programs or activities made available to students at the University.

The University also prohibits harassment, as defined in the Vermont Statutes at Title 16, section 11(a)(26). Unlawful harassment is a form of discrimination and is therefore prohibited.

Questions regarding this policy statement or compliance with its provisions may be directed to David Nestor, Dean of Students, University of Vermont, 41-43 South Prospect Street, Burlington, VT 05405 (802-656-3380) or Kathryn Friedman, Executive Director, Diversity & Equity Unit/Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity, University of Vermont, 428 Waterman Building, Burlington, VT 05405 (802-656-2909). Questions may also be directed to government agencies having oversight and enforcement authority with respect to the referenced laws. A complete listing of those agencies may be obtained from the Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity.
