UPWARD BOUND 2009

Tutor Counselor

DATES OF EMPLOYMENT: June 17, 2009- July 24, 2009

SALARY RANGE: $2,000- $2,400

Responsibilities of the TC begin in June and run through the last week in July. In general, TCs live on the University of Vermont campus with students for five weeks, providing residence hall supervision, recreational support, and academic assistance. Essentially, TCs act as residential assistants in the residence hall and teaching assistants in the afternoon classes. Additional compensation will include dorm room accommodations from June 17- July 24 and a meal plan beginning with the start of the summer program on Monday, June 29. Weekend meals and breakfast will not be provided throughout the duration of this program. As part of their job, TCs will be expected to:

1. Complete a blood-borne pathogen's & CPR/ basic first aid training; and obtain certification in each.
2. To attend daily staff meetings. Each TC staff member will also meet once a week with Residence Hall Director for supervision meetings. TCs will provide support during daily; study times, free time and field trip excursions and assist students with class homework when appropriate.
3. Live in the assigned residence hall for the duration of the residential program, including the weekend prior to student arrival with the exception of off-duty hours. In addition the TC staff will provide residential student supervision and support during the pre-summer program experience at UVM Bolton Cabin under the direction of the Upward Bound core staff. (June 22-26)
4. Work with the assigned faculty person and assist in an afternoon elective class, facilitate evening SAT group work and individual tutoring sessions as assigned outside of class.
5. Meet weekly with a group of students and a core faculty member in an advising circle, collect information and prepare brief written final reports for each student based on these meetings.
6. Assist in the development of and participate in a daily recreational program with students. 1
7. Monitor all students' behaviors in the residence hall, community meetings, and other scheduled activities. Also all TCs act to ensure all students are in the residence hall and rooms at assigned hours and conduct weekly Sunday night "floor" meetings
8. Conduct oneself in a positive manner that encourages and facilitates student interest in higher education. In addition, each TCs will promote the creation of a supportive and safe living and learning environment for all students.
9. Complete end of program evaluation and debriefing sessions. ^
10. Assist in ensuring that the residence hall is left clean and, move out of assigned room by Noon on Friday July 24th following a final debriefing of the program.
11. Comply with the federal laws to protect minors under FERPA/HIPAA, as well as UB guidelines, by not posting photographs, blogs, text messages, instant messages or stories of UB students on the internet, cell phone or on any other electronic medium. TCs will not become "friends" with UB students on the social network sites such as: Facebook, Myspace, or Twitter during employment or at anytime while the student is still considered a minor. We strongly discourage you from sharing e-mail addresses with students.
12. Be a champion for Education and enforcer of core rules with students. It is our expectation that the TC will lead by example.
