   (b) is published or becomes available to the general public other than through a breach of this Agreement;
   (c) is obtained by the recipient from a third party with a valid right to disclose it, provided that said third party is not under a confidentiality obligation to the disclosing party;
   (d) is independently developed by employees, agents or consultants of the recipient who had no knowledge of or access to the Confidential Information; or
   (e) was possessed by the recipient prior to its receipt from the disclosing party.

7. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, the proprietary or Confidential Information disclosed including all copies thereof shall be returned to the disclosing parties, or destroyed with a written certificate of destruction provided to the disclosing parties, or be disposed of as otherwise mutually agreed; except that recipient may keep one copy of the proprietary or Confidential Information for archival purposes only.

8. In providing the Academic Research Services, UVM may utilize techniques, processes and/or tools which are proprietary to UVM. Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, UVM retains all right and title to same and any improvements and/or modifications thereto.

9. The Sponsor may provide UVM with access to intellectual property which is proprietary to the Sponsor (hereinafter “Sponsor Intellectual Property”). All rights and title to Sponsor Intellectual Property shall belong to Sponsor.

10. All inventions arising out of the Academic Research Services described in Appendix A will be promptly disclosed to Sponsor. During the Contract Period in the performance of providing the Academic Research Services, UVM may, either solely, or jointly with one or more employees of the Sponsor, conceive and/or make inventions, improvements, and/or discoveries related to the Sponsor Intellectual Property (the “Foreground Intellectual Property”). All rights and title to Sponsor Intellectual Property and Foreground Intellectual Property shall belong to the Sponsor. All other inventions, improvements, and/or discoveries made during the Academic Research Services and made solely by employee(s) or consultant(s) of UVM shall be the property of UVM.

11. This Agreement shall be deemed to have come into force upon the beginning of the Contract Period and shall continue in effect for the full duration of the Contract Period unless sooner terminated in accordance with the provisions of this Article. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the other.

12. Termination of this Agreement by either party for any reason shall not affect the rights and obligations of the parties accrued prior to termination hereof. The provisions of Articles 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10 and 12 shall survive such termination.

13. Sponsor agrees to indemnify and hold UVM, the Investigator, and any of UVM’s faculty, students, employees, trustees, officers, affiliates or agents and their respective successors, heirs or assigns, including the Investigator (collectively the “Indemnitees”) harmless from liability of any nature or kind including defense costs or expenses, from, or on account of, any and all suits or damages, of any kind, resulting from injuries or damages sustained by any person or persons or property by virtue of Sponsor’s negligence or the receipt or use by the Sponsor of any data or other results arising from the Services, unless such liability results from UVM’s sole negligence or misconduct.

14. Each party agrees to maintain commercial general liability insurance in an amount not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence, combined single limit, for third party bodily injury and property damage liability, including products, completed operations and contractual liability.

15. UVM makes no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, concerning the research or any intellectual property rights, including, without limitation, warranties of merchantability, validity of any intellectual property rights or claims, whether issued or pending, or the absence of latent or other defects, whether or not discoverable. Specifically, and not to limit the foregoing, UVM makes no warranty or representation (i) regarding the validity or scope of the Research Program or any intellectual property rights optioned or granted hereunder and (ii) that the exploitation of the Research Program or any intellectual property rights will not infringe any patents or other intellectual property rights of UVM or of a third party.

16. UVM and Sponsor agree to comply with all federal, state and local laws, executive orders, rules, regulations and ordinances which may be applicable to such party’s performance of its obligations under this agreement. UVM’s obligations to transfer technology to Sponsor, provide technical information and reports to Sponsor, and otherwise perform under this Agreement are contingent upon compliance with applicable United States export control laws and regulations. The transfer of certain technical data and commodities may require a license from a cognizant agency of the United States Government or written assurances by Sponsor that Sponsor shall not export technical data, computer software or certain commodities to specified foreign countries without prior approval of an appropriate agency of the United States Government. UVM does not represent that a license shall not be required, nor that, if required, it shall be issued. In addition, Sponsor certifies that no information or materials that it discloses or transfers to UVM are controlled by US export control laws. If Sponsor wishes to disclose information or materials controlled by US export control laws, Sponsor shall notify UVM prior to disclosure and shall not disclose or transfer said information or materials until Sponsor receives notice from UVM that it intends to accept said information or materials.
