"I feel very good about completing this workshop. It has allowed me to slow down, breathe and put better intent into my job, friendships and family. One of the biggest concepts that has helped me the most is working from a curious place...this is easy to practice and easy to coach, with tremendous rewards. Moving forward, there are many applications that I plan on continuing to use. It is an opportunity to take a step to the next level of life practice, so hold on...it's a great ride!"
