

GAPS TRAINING FOR FARMERS

3 TO 6 PM, THURSDAY JULY 9, 2009

VERMONT TECHNICAL COLLEGE, MOREY LOUNGE

WITH DR. RICH BONNANO, UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS EXTENSION

This workshop is for commercial growers that want to learn how the GAP (Good Agricultural Practices) program works and what is required to comply with it. Some retailers have asked their growers to get GAP certified by 2010. This workshop is for them and others that may wish to get GAP certified in the future.

Topics to be covered include:

- Overview of GAP and food safety issues
- Review of the GAP Audit Forms and how to complete them
- Developing Your GAP plan (for third-party audits)
- Examples of some Farm GAP plans

To register, please send $10 per person payable to 'UVM Extension'

(to cover cost of written materials) by July 6th, to:

Vern Grubinger, UVM Extension, 11 University Way, Brattleboro VT 05301

Directions: Take Exit 4 off I-89, turn east onto Rt. 66 heading uphill. Go 3/4 mile to intersection at top of hill, drive straight through the intersection to parking lot.

The Administrative Building is on your right; follow the foot path behind it a few hundred yards up the hill to Morey Lounge, which is attached to the cafeteria.

A campus map is at: www.vtc.edu/Downloads/campus-map.pdf

Questions? Vern Grubinger (802) 257-7967 x13 or vernon.grubinger@uvm.edu

Sponsored in part by USDA Risk Management Agency