ABOUT THIS INFORMATIONAL PACKET

Welcome to the University of Vermont! The University of Vermont's Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity has developed and compiled this packet, in collaboration with the University of Vermont's Asian, Latino, African and Native American Coalition and Affirmative Action Liaisons. The purpose of this packet is to assist new hires with acclimating themselves to the Chittenden County area. It is our hope that this packet will also serve as a resource to University hiring officials in their recruitment efforts.

The listed entries are a compilation of some services and resources available on and off campus that hiring officials, faculty, staff, and students of color at the University of Vermont have utilized or wished they had been aware of upon their arrival to the University of Vermont. It is not possible to include all that is available in the Chittenden County area and on campus, but hopefully, these lists can serve as a start to help better navigate a new location and environment. We cannot and do not in any way guarantee the services and resources listed. We do hope, however that this packet will help to familiarize you with what is available.

"Education is not preparation for life. Education is life itself."

-- John Dewey, educator, philosopher, UVM Class of 1879

The University of Vermont is an educationally purposeful community seeking to prepare students to live in a diverse and changing world. We, who work, live, study, teach, do research, conduct business, or participate in the University of Vermont, and are members of this community. As members, we believe in the transforming power of education and agree to help create and foster an environment where we can discover and reach our true potential.

WE ASPIRE TO BE A COMMUNITY THAT VALUES:

RESPECT: We respect each other. We listen to each other, encourage each other, and care about each other. We are strengthened by our diverse perspectives.

INTEGRITY: We value fairness, straightforward conduct, adherence to the facts, and sincerity. We acknowledge when things have not turned out the way we had hoped. As stewards of the University of Vermont, we are honest and ethical in all responsibilities entrusted to us.

INNOVATION: We want to be at the forefront of change and believe that the best way to lead is to learn from our successes and mistakes and continue to grow. We are forward-looking and break new ground in addressing important community and societal needs.

OPENNESS: We encourage the open exchange of information and ideas from all quarters of the community. We believe that through collaboration and participation, each of us has an important role in determining the direction and well being of our community.

JUSTICE: As a just community, we unite against all forms of injustice, including, but not limited to, racism. We reject bigotry, oppression, degradation, and harassment, and we challenge injustice toward any member of our community.

RESPONSIBILITY: We are personally and collectively responsible for our words and deeds. We stand together to uphold our common ground.

SOME ON CAMPUS SUPPORT OFFICES

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION & EQUAL OPPORTUNITY: 802 656-3368; www.uvm.edu/~aaeo

The Office of Affirmative Action coordinates the University's Non-Discrimination Policies and Procedures. It monitors the Recruitment Policies and Procedures that play an essential role in the University's achievement of its commitment to equal employment opportunity and affirmative action. It provides education and training designed to raise awareness and prevent unlawful discrimination against protected categories such as: race, color, religion, national or ethnic origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, and disability. The Office of Affirmative Action monitors the American with Disabilities Act (ADA) compliance efforts within the University; by providing resources and technical information to ensure that federal requirements are met.

ACCESS: 802 656-7753; www.uvm.edu/access/
(Accommodation, Consultation, Collaboration, and Educational Services)

“Access is committed to diversity and views disability as one more aspect of diversity.”

The mission of ACCESS is to provide accommodation, consultation, collaboration and educational support services as a means to foster opportunities for students with disabilities to participate in a barrier-free learning environment. We serve as a resource to UVM and the larger community to advocate for educational equity and innovation. “Please contact ACCESS for information on services and programs, or to request accommodations.”

ALANA COALITION (ALCO): www.uvm.edu/~alco

The ALANA (Asian-American, Latino, African-American & Native American) Coalition is a campus wide organization that serves and represents faculty, staff and graduate students of color at the University of Vermont. Our meetings are a place where people of color from across campus can network, get support and discuss ALANA-related issues. Our mission includes the concepts of: recruiting and retaining people of color, providing a social network, bringing people together across campus and departments, providing a climate that strengthens academic programs, advocating for courses to secure an inclusive curriculum, providing for a political advocacy function, encouraging and promoting new membership, and promoting multicultural education, research and scholarship.

ALANA STUDENT CENTER: 802 656-3819; www.uvm.edu/~asc/

The ALANA Student Center (ASC) exists to create a diverse and rich community of empowered, engaged and enthusiastic ALANA and Bi/Multi-racial students at UVM who are proud people of color who actively seek and create opportunities for self development and personal understanding, believe in the power of community and participate responsibly in serving each others’ needs, work to develop their full academic and leadership potential, are committed to social justice and serve as allies to causes not directly their own, and share their multiple talents with the greater UVM, Burlington and Vermont community.

CENTER FOR CULTURAL PLURALISM: 802 656-8833; www.uvm.edu/~ccpuvm

The Center for Cultural Pluralism (CCP) is dedicated to helping UVM achieve its core mission to provide quality multicultural education in order to equip faculty, staff and students with the competencies necessary to function in a diverse world. The Center focuses on the intersections of issues of culture and social justice. The Center offers a unique “Cultural Hub” where individuals and organizations working on behalf of cultural diversity and social justice issues can focus on collaboration and coalition efforts. The Center offers advising, consulting, educational programs and modest grants to further UVM’s strategic objectives linked to cultural diversity and social justice.
CCP faculty and staff provide resources and assistance to the UVM community, Burlington and the state of Vermont on issues of multicultural education, cultural awareness, prejudice reduction, and social justice. The Center supports and initiates educational and social programs designed to raise awareness, expand understanding and knowledge and develop skills for effective intercultural communication. The Center for Cultural Pluralism is a highly visible, tangible symbol of UVM’s commitment to equity, social justice, inclusiveness, and critical thinking.

CHIEF DIVERSITY OFFICE: 802-656-8426: www.uvm.edu/~president/diversity/

The Chief Diversity Office’s Mission is to help support the university’s commitment to multiculturalism, diversity and social equality. They know that a multicultural and diverse learning community promotes life changing and rewarding learning experiences. Therefore, they actively seek to provide leadership and direction that will continuously improve university-wide efforts to create and maintain an inclusive and diverse community.

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM: 802 656-2100: www.uvm.edu/eap

The Employee Assistance Program (E.A.P.) protects the University’s investment in human resources by providing confidential assistance on issues that could impact the health, welfare, or work performance of our faculty and staff. The EAP is designed to assist faculty, staff, administrators, and their immediate family members with persistent problems which might affect job performance. Issues such as physical, mental or emotional illness; financial, marital or family distress, alcoholism, drug abuse, legal problems, work related concerns or other matters can be effectively treated provided they are accurately identified and referral is made to an appropriate method of care.

OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION: 800 828-6025: www.uvm.edu/oie/

The Office of International Education promotes international understanding, engenders global citizenship and fosters cultural diversity. The University of Vermont is home to approximately 500 international students, faculty and staff from more than 50 countries around the world. We strive to create an inviting atmosphere in which our international community finds support. The Office of International Education (O.I.E.) offers the following services to international students: provides a comprehensive orientation programs and serves as a liaison to campus offices and facilities and to the Burlington community. The OIE advises on matters of immigration, academics, personal issues, and financial assistance; offers inter cultural programs and activities which connect students with others in the University and surrounding community; disseminates information through a newsletter. The OIE also serves University students interested in studying abroad and develops and administers exchange partnerships with universities in other nations.

LGBTQA SERVICES: 802 656-8637 www.uvm.edu/~lgbtqa

The Office of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Questioning & Ally Center (L.G.B.T.Q. &A.) at the University of Vermont is committed to assisting UVM in understanding and meeting the needs of affiliates who identify as Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and/or Transgender, affiliates who are questioning their sexual orientation and/or gender identity, and affiliates who are, or would like to become, allies to any or all of these groups. This work includes ongoing assessment of needs, helping to foster and create cultural education for the community at large, building community among and between LGBTQA affiliates, providing advocacy and support to LGBTQA affiliates seeking services from University offices and programs, and providing consultation and information to offices and programs throughout the University. These measures are intended to transform the UVM experience for LGBTQA affiliates to one that is safe, positive and fully engaging.

WOMEN’S CENTER: 802 656-7892: www.uvm.edu/~women

The Women’s Center values and celebrates the multiplicity of women’s lives; recognizes the intersections of gender, race, sexual orientation, economic status, and other significant aspects of individual and cultural identity; accepts responsibility for opposing injustice; and commits itself to service to the University and larger communities. The Women’s Center (WC) advocates for women at the University by working to insure policies and procedures for all students, staff, and faculty. Women students, faculty and staff gather at the Center to celebrate their accomplishments, have fun, and have intellectual discussions about things that impact their lives. The WC facilitates and makes connections through discussion groups and social gatherings. The WC helps to develop and implement programs, serve on committees, and work on special projects. The WC also houses a Victim’s Advocate who provides confidential services to survivors and to friends or family of survivors of gender violence.
