

2009 Accomplished Alumni Awardee
Mr. Ian Boyce, CFPR

Mr. Boyce was born in Montreal, Canada. He received his B.A. in Zoology in 1989, with a minor concentration in Economics at UVM. He is currently serving as a Certified Financial Planner™ and Principal owner of Dickmeyer Boyce Financial Management, a Fee-Only financial planning and investment management firm.

A 1989 Buffalo Sabres draft pick, Ian spent 9 seasons playing professional hockey in North America and Europe. He began his finance career with JP Morgan Chase, in their Private Banking and Estate area, before joining a large, regional Fee-Only financial planning firm.

Mr. Boyce is a current member of the National Association of Personal Financial Advisors (NAPFA) – Midwest Board, and Financial Planning Association (FPA). He is a recipient of the UVM Accomplished Undergraduate Alumnus Award for the Biology Department (2009), a UVM Boulder Society Member and is a current Member of the UVM Athletic Hall of Fame (1999) and past recipient of the Keith Miser Leadership Award (1989). UVM affiliations: UVM Reunion Class Gift Committee, 1993-1994; San Francisco Regional Board, 1996; Captain for the Honor Your Number fundraising project - UVM Athletics; NCAA Steering Committee Member, 2006; Campus Life Task Force II, Chair, 2007.