The Importance of Intercultural Communication: A Two-Part Series with Dr. Leeva Chung
[a collaboration with the Global Gateway Program and the Center for Cultural Pluralism]

Introduction to Intercultural Communication
Monday, March 30, 2015 • 8:30 AM to 12:00 PM
- Understand various identity-based communication themes in contemporary U.S. society and international arenas
- Discuss basic conceptual frameworks in understanding intercultural communication
- Engage in active dialogue on successful strategies and appropriate communication skills for managing intercultural situations

Intermediate Intercultural Communication: Theory to Practice
Monday, March 30, 2015 • 1:00 to 4:00 PM or Tuesday, March 31, 2015 • 8:30 AM to 12:00 PM
- Build upon an existing basic knowledge of intercultural communication using multiple intercultural communication models to analyze cross-cultural interactions
- Explore in-depth methods of assessment, self-assessment tests, critical incident analyses, small group discussions, video analyses, intercultural simulations and effective debriefing
- Practice using theories and concepts of stereotypes and intergroup biases to improve communication

Plus a special session for faculty, GTA's and teaching staff only:
Artfully Navigating Identities in the Classroom
Tuesday, March 31, 2015 • 1:00 to 4:00 PM
For more information please visit the website below.

REGISTRATION REQUIRED • SPACE IS LIMITED
FREE to current UVM faculty, staff & students
$30 per person for community members

For more information & to register, please visit:
http://tinyurl.com/lchung
Location provided upon completion of registration

If you have any questions, contact (802) 656-8833 or ccp@uvm.edu

Sponsored by the University of Vermont’s Center for Cultural Pluralism, Global Gateway Program, and the Office of the Vice President for Human Resources, Diversity & Multicultural Affairs