

EDSP 305: Interagency Collaboration and Resource Development: Families, Schools, Communities, and Agencies (3 credits)

The course addresses interagency and family supports and planning strategies for meeting the needs of students with emotional and behavioral challenges. Participants will explore collaborative teaming strategies, the Vermont system of care, collaboration with families, lead agencies for children and families, and the Department of Education and Agency of Human Services Interagency Agreement and Act 264 coordinated service planning process <http://vtcsp.blogspot.com>

EDSP 305 takes place over five full days during the BEST Summer Institute

(<http://www.uvm.edu/~cdci/best/>) providing an opportunity to participate in several institute activities, make contacts, and finish the majority of class in a single week! Part of the course involves working with school teams at the institute and providing other assistance. In exchange, the conference registration fee is waived, and participants receive housing and breakfast and lunch each day.

The BEST Graduate Concentration provides an evidence-based course sequence for individuals and teams to meet the needs (and capitalize on the strengths!) of children with emotional and behavioral challenges and their families. Open to classroom teachers, special educators, school administrators, and other professionals and community members.

Where	BEST Summer Institute Killington Grand Resort
When	June 22 - June 26
Instructor	Jesse Suter
Cost	$730

Graduate credit and school / district team opportunities are also available.
 For more information contact:
 Jesse Suter at jesse.suter@uvm.edu
 802-656-1130 or on the web at:
<http://www.uvm.edu/~cdci/ebd/>