Students are invited to apply for two positions as Undergraduate Research Assistants (URAs) in fall 2015.

URAs are paid $10.00/hour and the hours available to work vary with each professor.

Specific job descriptions and qualifications: Here are the professors who are seeking assistants and their specific requirements:

Professor McCrate
Hours per week: Approximately 20 hours total for the semester.

Job Description: Responsibilities include library and/or internet research, meeting with librarians as needed, taking notes and spreadsheet work.

Qualifications: Must be an economics major or minor with interest in women’s and gender studies. Must know Word and Excel. Must be attentive to detail.

Professor Vizcarra
Hours per week: Approximately 110 hours total for the semester.

Job Description: Responsibilities include library and/or internet research, analyzing data, creating spreadsheets, and other duties as assigned.

Qualifications: Proficient in Excel

Application procedure and deadline: For each position you apply for, please submit your resume, and a brief statement addressing experience, course work and skills. You may apply for both positions. If you have any questions, please contact the chair of the department, Sara Solnick (sara.solnick@uvm.edu). Deadline is September 11th, 4:00 p.m. Please submit all materials to the Economics Department via email at econ@uvm.edu