

Kerry Swift, Technology Licensing Officer

Kerry Swift assists Todd Keiller in the management of technology transfer initiatives and supports Ruth Farrell at UVM's Office of Sponsored Programs in industry-related research activities.

Kerry brings to the University of Vermont experience in negotiating a wide variety of industry agreements with both large companies and startup firms. Prior to joining UVM, Kerry served for six years in the M.I.T. Technology Licensing Office. She holds a Master of Science in Molecular Biology from Tufts University and is a magna cum laude biochemistry graduate of the University of New Hampshire.

Beyond her professional interests, Kerry is an outdoor enthusiast and a regular participant in the Head of the Charles and other rowing events.
