The State of Marriage: Film Screening and Panel
6:00 – 8:30 pm
Tuesday, April 18, 2017
Williams Hall 301

The State of Marriage profiles the remarkable men and women who pioneered the national marriage equality movement through their groundbreaking efforts in Vermont.

Join us for a screening of this new documentary, followed by a panel discussion with filmmakers Jeff Kaufman and Marcia Ross, as well as members of the community.

"Gripping. Audiences will cheer."
- The Huffington Post

"Indispensable. A suspenseful nail-biter right up to the feel good ending."
- The Hollywood Reporter

THE STATE OF MARRIAGE
FLOATING WORLD PICTURES presents THE STATE OF MARRIAGE
Cinematographer: DANIEL KAUFMAN | Editor: ASHER BINGHAM
Music Score: LAURA KARPMAN and NORA KROLL-ROSENBBAUM
Executive producers: LOLA VAN WAGENEN and BUDDY STEVES
Associate Producer: Fritz Friedman | Producer: MARCIA S. ROSS
Director, Producer, Writer: JEFF KAUFMAN

Co-sponsors: Vermont Historical Society; Pride Center of Vermont; Center for Research on Vermont; Office of the Dean, College of Arts and Sciences; Departments of History, Film and Television Studies, Gender, Sexuality, and Women’s Studies; The LGBTQA Center

For more information, please contact Amanda Gustin, Public Program Coordinator, Vermont Historical Society, at amanda.gustin@vermonthistory.org and Paul Deslandes, UVM History Department Chair, at paul.deslandes@uvm.edu