Chinese Opera Masks

- their history, symbolism, colors, and meaning

- Join us for a workshop exploring the tradition of this fascinating art form dating back hundreds of years.
- Learn about the rigid rules used in constructing an opera
- Find out how the art form changed during the Cultural Revolution
- Learn about the symbolism of the colors used in the masks
- Learn how to teach and make Chinese opera relevant to students
- Make your own opera mask

Contact Gerry Gatz
802-343-1058
for information on how to bring this workshop to your school or to a school near you.