

Wilderness Instructor Leadership Development

Application for Fall 2016

W.I.L.D is an instructional program for prospective Outing Club leaders, focused on building wilderness and leadership skills, team building, positive group dynamics, diversity training, and FUN! We are looking for enthusiastic, hardworking applicants dedicated to learning, getting involved in OC leadership and sharing their love of the outdoors with others! Though no wilderness experience is necessary, it will be helpful to have familiarity with basic outdoor living skills. W.I.L.D will not only instruct in necessary technical outdoor and group leadership skills, but will also familiarize “WILDees” with the operations and procedures of the Outing Club, through this we hope to enhance the Outing Club community. The class will meet for two and a half hours each week and consist of three MANDATORY weekend tutorials.

Class will meet Wednesday nights

(Class begins September 21st)

(One Tuesday class on October 25)

7:30-10:00pm

The Three Weekends are:

1st weekend: Sept. 16-18

2nd weekend: Oct. 15-16

3rd weekend: Dec. 3-4

& An on-campus debrief, date and time TBD

The cost of the class will be $165. This will cover a textbook, binder, transportation, food, and all gear rentals throughout the semester. If accepted, your payment for class will be due by the second class on October 5th. Please do not allow the cost of this course to stop you from applying. Some scholarships are given to students on the basis of need. If the cost of the class causes you to hesitate, please enclose an additional paragraph stating your financial aid situation. Applications are due Saturday, September 10th at noon to the OC Desk at SGA in the Davis Center or the Outing Club House. No late applications will be accepted. Thank you for applying for W.I.L.D. and we look forward to meeting you.

Please type your responses to the following questions on a separate sheet of paper and attach to this application. Your responses are only the first part of the evaluation process. We will be conducting group interviews in conjunction with reviewing your application. Your responses should be relevant and relatively concise, but take the time to thoughtfully consider and answer these questions, as your responses will be the only information we have about you prior to your interview.

1. Indicate your strongest backcountry and wilderness skills and discuss a skill that you would most like to improve.
2. Why do you want to be an Outing Club Leader, and what do you hope to gain from WILD?
3. Tell us what leadership means to you and please give an example of a time when you exemplified strong leadership skills.
4. What would a close friend say your best attributes are?
5. What are some wilderness experiences you have had, either on your own and/ or with the OC or TREK?
6. Please list any other clubs and organizations that you are or plan to be involved with on campus as well as any time commitments that could interfere with WILD.
7. Why did you choose the University of Vermont?
8. Share your favorite body of water and list three adjectives to describe it.
9. What is one of your favorite quotes?
10. Describe your ideal first date! Express yourself through whichever medium you'd like (drawing, dance, poetry, baked goods, paper mache...)

The process of evaluating applications and interviews is an extremely difficult one. We make a great effort to put together a well-balanced class compiled of people with a variety of backgrounds and attributes in order to create a dynamic learning community. Unfortunately, to maintain a manageable class size of 15 students and with so many well-qualified applicants, we must still turn people away that undoubtedly would be valuable additions to the class. So, please do not be discouraged if you are not accepted into the course. Keep doing what you love; play outside, go on some Outing Club trips, and reapply in the future. If you are accepted, keep in mind your spot is wanted by many others, and if you feel as though you cannot fully commit yourself to this course, please let us know as soon as possible! Thanks for taking the time to fill out this application and for showing interest in our program!

Happy Trails,
The WILD Coordinators,
Mikaela Dalton, Kevin Foley, Taylor Devlin, Derek MacDonald, and Anna Martone
