February 5, 2014

To: Faculty and Staff of the University of Vermont

From: David V. Rosowsky, Provost and Senior Vice President

Subject: Incentive-based Budget Model Subcommittee Report Q&A Sessions

If you haven’t already done so, I hope you will find time to read the Incentive-based Budget (IBB) Model Subcommittee reports that are available on the IBB website. If you have questions about the reports’ contents, I encourage you to attend a Q&A session. The sessions will include members of the IBB Subcommittees as well as other project staffers.

The Q&A sessions are scheduled for:

Monday, February 10; 12:00 – 1:00 pm; Davis Center - Livak

Thursday, February 13; 2:00 – 3:00pm; 427A Waterman

Friday, February 14; 12:00 – 1:00 pm; Billings Ira Allen 110/Martin Luther King Lounge
   (Directions: use the back entrance of Ira Allen; take a right; MLK lounge is on the left, before the Campus Center Theater)

Tuesday, February 18; 2:00 – 3:00pm; Waterman - Memorial Lounge

Thank you for your continued engagement in this important University initiative.