Upon completion of the BS SLH degree, students will:

- Have the knowledge and understanding to sustainably manage trees, shrubs, turfgrass and other plants grown in the human environment
- Gain an understanding of and be able to apply ecological principles to the design of multifunctional landscapes
- Have skills to effectively communicate findings and interpretations of agricultural and landscape datasets orally in a clear and concise manner
- Have skills to demonstrate a quantitative and qualitative science perspective applying critical thinking and problem solving skills to a given problem or issue

Updated 12/20/2017