

Beyond the Scream: Lessons from inside the Dean Campaign

A lunchtime panel discussion on Saturday, Oct. 7, 2006, from 12:30-2:30, in the new Champlain College Student Life Center gymnasium, Burlington, Vermont. Open to the public; $15 admission includes lunch.

.... there is something much more there than the scream, than the tools, than the numbers. there was a core passion that we all shared about actually changing the shape of political society. . . .

-- Zephyr Teachout

Confirmed Panelists:

- Zephyr Teachout, Director of Internet Outreach for the Dean Campaign, currently national director of the Sunlight Foundation.
- Amanda Michel, Youth Organizer for the Dean Campaign, (and later part of John Kerry's internet team), currently on the staff of the Berkman Center for Internet and Society at Harvard Law School.
- Aldon Hynes, programmer and founder of Connecticut for Dean, currently a key player in the Lamont for Senate campaign.
- Tom Hughes, deputy director for the Dean campaign in New Hampshire, currently Executive Director of Democracy for America.
- Kate O'Connor, an aide to Governor Dean and early director of his Presidential campaign, currently on the staff of U.S. Senate hopeful Richard Tarrant.

In association with the Action Coalition for Media Education (ACME) conference: "Facing the Media Crisis: Media Education for Reform, Justice and Democracy," October 6-8, 2006, Burlington, Vermont
<http://www.acmecoalition.org/>. Co-sponsored by the Departments of History, Geography, Humanities, Sociology, and Community Development and Applied Economics at the University of Vermont.