

Application for In-State Status

Updated October 2012

We at the University of Vermont realize that the outcome of a residency classification for tuition purposes is a critical factor for many students in their application and enrollment decisions. In this application, you will find several answers to frequently asked questions, a list of instructions, and an outline of the Residency process. Please take a moment to read the first two pages of the application before proceeding to complete the Application for In-State Status.

Determination of Residency: All students at, or applicants to, the University of Vermont are classified as either in-state or out-of-state for tuition purposes under The University of Vermont Board of Trustees Residency Regulations. Students who are assigned an in-state classification under the Regulations pay a lower rate of tuition than those who are classified as out-of-state students. The Residency Regulations are applied uniformly to all students throughout the University's colleges and schools.

The University of Vermont Board of Trustees, in accordance with Vermont State law, sets the criteria to differentiate between in-state and out-of-state students for the purpose of tuition assessment. There is no federal legislation governing state tuition classification. Therefore, it is possible that a student may not qualify for in-state tuition status in any state. Your status at the University of Vermont is governed solely by Vermont law.

Independent Classification: Determinations of in-state status for the purpose of tuition assessment by the University of Vermont are independent of the criteria used by other state authorities, or institutions, to determine residency for such purposes as income and property tax liability, driving, and voting. Those determinations may or may not be the same as the determination of your status for tuition purposes.

Establishing Domicile and Reclassification: You must establish that you are domiciled in Vermont, pursuant to UVM's Residency Regulations, before you will be entitled to pay in-state tuition rates. If the University questions your domicile as stated in Regulation 1, you will need to document your eligibility to be classified as an in-state student by filing the Application for In-State Status in a timely manner. In doing so, you must provide clear and convincing evidence that you have satisfied the Residency Regulations as a whole, and as a result are eligible for in-state status. All applicants for admission, as well as enrolled students, may be asked to complete an Application for In-State Status.

Applicant Responsibilities: You must answer all questions on the application and attach relevant supporting documentation. Failure to provide complete and accurate information, or to submit supporting documentation may delay the processing of your application and/or result in an out-of-state classification. In addition to the types of supporting documentation mentioned in the Application, please include any additional information you feel will help support your application for in-state status.

Instructions: Read the directions carefully and review all the questions before completing the Application. Space is provided on the last page for you to elaborate further on your reasons for seeking in-state classification for tuition purposes. Incomplete forms or lack of supporting documentation will delay processing.

Provide Supporting Documentation: Simply completing the Application for In-State Status is not sufficient to successfully demonstrate your eligibility for in-state tuition status. Please provide as much information and documentation as you can, and sign the Application on pages 4, 10, and 12. To that end, a list of commonly submitted supporting documentation, which may be helpful to the Residency Officer, has been provided at the end of this Application. Only copies of supporting documentation should be submitted.

Common-law domicile, as outlined in Regulation 5, is itself not sufficient to establish eligibility for in-state status at the University of Vermont. It is the responsibility of each individual applicant to demonstrate compliance with the University's Regulations.

Deadline for Residency Application: Last day of ADD/DROP each semester. An application may be submitted as early as 75 days in advance of the first day of classes for a semester. Applications are processed on a first-come, first-served basis. Due to the high volume in our office immediately before and during registration, we cannot guarantee that applications received by this deadline will be processed before the tuition payment due date. If your residency status has not been resolved before your payment due date, you must contact Student Financial Services regarding payment of your bill. *All applications received after the last day of the Add/Drop deadline will be considered for the following semester for which the student is enrolled.

Mail or Deliver Your Completed Application: After your completed Application is received, the Residency Officer will review the information within the context of the University's Residency Regulations. You will receive a decision letter (typically within 2-3 weeks) notifying you of your classification for tuition purposes. If your classification is out-of-state, you will be given information regarding the University's residency appeal process. A student must first apply for, and be denied, in-state tuition status before attempting an appeal. Please note that even though parents, guardians, or others may assist you in completing this Application, all communication will be with you as the student applicant directly.

Please make a copy of this Application for your personal records. All materials you submit become the property of the University of Vermont and will not be returned or forwarded. The information contained in the Application for In-State Status, as well as all supporting documentation, is confidential and used only by the Residency Office. Your file will be maintained in accordance with the University's Record Retention Policy, and will be kept confidential to the extent permitted by law.

IN-STATE STATUS REGULATIONS

In-State Classification Rules

1. Domicile shall mean a person's true, fixed, and permanent home. It is the place at which one intends to remain indefinitely and to which one intends to return when absent.
2. In addition to establishing domicile, an in-state status applicant must reside in Vermont continuously for one full year prior to the semester for which in-state status is sought.
3. A residence or domicile established for the purpose of attending UVM shall not qualify a student for in-state status.
4. An in-state status applicant who applies for admission or registers for class within one year of first moving to the state shall have created a rebuttable presumption that residency in Vermont is for the purpose of attending UVM and/or acquiring in-state status for tuition purposes.
5. A domicile or residency classification assigned by a public or private authority other than UVM neither qualifies nor disqualifies a student for UVM in-state status. Such classification may be taken into consideration, however, in determining the student's status at UVM.
6. It shall be presumed that a student who has not reached the age of majority (18) holds the domicile of his/her parents or legal guardian(s).
7. Receipt of financial support by a student from his/her family shall create a rebuttable presumption that the student's domicile is with his/her family, regardless of whether the student has reached the age of 18.
8. A student who has not reached the age of 18 whose parents are legally separated or divorced shall be rebuttably presumed to hold the domicile of the parent with legal custody.
9. A student of parents legally separated or divorced may be granted in-state status if a noncustodial or joint custodial parent is domiciled in Vermont and has contributed more than 50 percent of financial support for at least one year prior to the semester for which in-state status is sought.
10. The burden of proof as to eligibility for in-state status rests with the student. Eligibility must be established by clear and convincing evidence.

Residency Rules for Members of the Armed Forces and Their Family Members

In compliance with the Higher Education Opportunity Act, the following rules and definitions apply for members of the armed forces, their spouses and dependent children:

1. A member of the armed forces who is on active duty for a period of more than 30 days and whose domicile or permanent duty station is in Vermont, or his or her spouse or dependent children, will be charged tuition at the in-state rate.
2. The member of the armed forces or his or her family member eligible for in-state tuition under this paragraph will continue to be eligible for in-state tuition as long as the individual is continuously enrolled, even if there is a subsequent change in the permanent duty station of the member to a location outside of the State of Vermont.

3. For purposes of this Rule for members of the armed forces the following definitions apply:
  - a. "Armed Forces" means the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard.
  - b. "Active duty for a period of more than 30 days" means active duty under a call or order that does not specify a period of 30 days or less.
  - c. "Active duty" means full-time duty in the active military service of the United States and includes full-time training duty, annual training duty, and attendance, while in the active military service, at a school designated as a service school by law or by the Secretary of the military department concerned. Such term does not include full-time National Guard duty.

In-State Status Classification Documentation

11. The student must submit with the Application for In-State Status all relevant information.
12. The classification decision shall be made by the Residency Officer based upon information furnished by the student, information requested of the student, and other relevant information available consistent with University policies and procedures and legal guidelines.
13. Additional documents and/or verifications may be requested.
14. The student's failure to produce information requested may adversely affect the decision for in-state status.
15. A student or others furnishing information may request the deletion from documents of irrelevant private data.

In-State Status Classification Appeals

16. The decision of the Residency Officer must be appealed in writing to the Residency Appellate Officer within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the Residency Officer's written decision. Appeal to the Residency Appellate Officer is the final internal appeal at UVM.

In-State Status Reclassification

17. A student who does not qualify for in-state status classification may reapply for such classification once each semester by submitting an Application for In-State Status to the Residency Officer.
18. In-state status reclassification becomes effective for the semester for which the successful application was made, provided that the Application for In-State Status was received on or before the last day to add/drop classes for that semester. Approved residency reclassification will not be applied retroactively to previous terms.

Re-Examination of Classification Status

19. Classification status may be re-examined upon the initiative of the Residency Officer in the exercise of sound discretion. Circumstances such as periodic enrollment may be cause for re-examination

Applicant Status

Please indicate which status you believe to be applicable to your situation below, for consideration by the University's Residency Officer, in light of the Residency Regulations and the content of your Application.

Dependent Student: A dependent student's residency is based upon the residency of the person upon whom they are dependent, as follows:

I am applying for in-state status as a dependent student whose parent(s) or court-appointed legal guardian has maintained a bona fide domicile in the State of Vermont for at least one year?  YES  NO

I am applying for in-state status as the child of a noncustodial or joint custodial parent who has maintained a bona fide domicile in the State of Vermont for at least one year?  YES  NO

If yes, you must sign the below statement and your parent(s) or legal guardian must complete SECTION B and C and you must complete SECTIONS A and D.

Financially Independent Student: One in his or her majority (18 years of age or older) or an emancipated minor, whose predominant source of income is his/her own earnings or income from employment, investments, or payments from grants, scholarships, or commercial loans.

I am applying for in-state status as a financially independent student?  YES  NO

I certify that I have not been, and will not be, claimed as an exemption for federal income tax purposes by any person except myself or my spouse for the current calendar year and for the calendar year immediately before the year in which this application is made.  YES  NO

I have not received, and will not receive, financial assistance in cash or in kind of any amount equal to or greater than that which I would qualify me to be claimed as an exemption for income tax purposes by any person except myself or my spouse during the current calendar year and for the calendar year immediately before the year in which this application is made.  YES  NO

If yes, you must sign the following statement and complete SECTIONS A, B, C and D of this form. If no, you need to have the person who provides your financial support complete SECTION B and C.

Statement: I certify that all information provided and all statements made in all sections of this application are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

I understand that if I provide false information or withhold relevant information in order to obtain the resident tuition rate, UVM may revoke its determination of eligibility for the in-state tuition rate and that I will owe out-of-state tuition to the University for each semester or session that I have attended under these circumstances. I also may be subject to disciplinary action through the Center for Student Ethics and Standards.
