
This report is a companion report to the “National Survey of the Vermont Visitor 1999.” Although this report parallels the content of the primary report, it includes data only for those individuals who visited Vermont at least once for the primary purpose of alpine skiing.