

SUDAN WEEK

Sunday, April 6: Sudan Week Kick off Event

Panel discussion with Sudanese speakers from our community and hors d'oeuvres. Drop in, have some food and learn about Sudan, and its future.
Davis Center Sugar Maple Ballroom 5:00pm

Monday, April 7: "Future Beyond Genocide" lecture

Lecture by former Sudanese refugee, Abraham Awolich. Come hear his story and how he is changing the future of Sudan.
John Dewy Lounge 7:00pm

Tuesday, April 8: Film showing of "God Grew Tired of Us" with Q&A

This is a film about the transition to America by Southern Sudanese who fled their homes because of war. In conjunction with STAND's film series.
Living/Learning 315 7:00pm

Wednesday, April 9: Shirt Making

Tables around campus will have shirt-making supplies for you to decorate a shirt that will go to the students of the first NESEI School in Southern Sudan.

Davis Center Atrium 9am to 3pm,
Harris Millis Lounge 4pm to 8pm

Thursday, April 10: STAND's keynote lecturer Roméo Dallaire.

UN Force Commander during the 1994 Rwandan Genocide will speak about his experience during the genocide and the world's inability to act.
Ira Allen chapel 7:00pm

Friday, April 11: Symbolic Walk

Join hundreds of Vermont students and residents in a walk to raise money and awareness to build schools in Southern Sudan. There will be a celebration at the Echo center with live music, food, and closing moments of Sudan Week!

Davis Center Atrium 7:00pm

Questions and comments, email the UVM NESEI team at uvmnesei@gmail.com

nesei.org

Sponsored by UVM NESEI, UVM STAND, Champlain STAND and the Living and Learning RA's