

April Month of Action 2008

www.uvm.edu/~stand

Tuesday, 8pm, April 1: "Darfur Now" Documentary Film Screening
Silver Maple Ballroom Davis Student Center (4th Floor)

UVM STAND will be kicking off its April Month of Action with a screening of the documentary "Darfur Now" followed by a short discussion held by Sudanese and STAND students.
FREE Flatbread Pizza served! 8pm

Tuesday, 7pm, April 8: "God Grew Tired of Us" Living/Learning room 315

This is a film about the transition to America made by Southern Sudanese who fled their homes because of decades of war. Followed by Q & A. In conjunction with NESEI's Sudan Week April 6th-11th (The New Sudan Education Initiative: www.nesei.org)

Thursday, 7pm, April 10:

UVM STAND's Keynote Address from Senator and former UN Force Commander Roméo Dallaire

Senator Dallaire will speak about his experiences as UN Force Commander during the 1994 Rwandan genocide and his current humanitarian work. He is the first recipient of the Aegis Award on Genocide Prevention.
(Open to the public. Ira Allen Chapel @ 7:00pm)

Friday, 7pm, April 11: Walk For Sudan

Join hundreds of Vermont students and residents in a walk to raise money and awareness to build schools in Southern Sudan. (Meet at Davis Center Atrium)

::: Genocide Education Film Series ::: Tuesdays 7pm:::

April 15: Sometimes in April

(Marsh Life Science Room 105)

April 22: Living With Refugees

(University Heights North 1 Multipurpose Room)

April 29: The Devil Came On Horseback

(Harris Millis)

UVM GREEN Field of Flags Genocide Memorials
Rwanda (April 8th - 12th) & Sudan (April 19th - 26th)

Contact UVM STAND: uvmstand@gmail.com